BULL MOOSE HERD HOLDS LOVE FEAST

Not a Dissenting Voice Raised in the First Convention of Progressive Party—Hiram W. Johnson Slated For Vice President and Judge Lindsay For Permanent Chairman.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—The first session of the first convention of the new National Progressive party, of which Col. Theodore Rosevelt is sponsor, was held in the Coliseum today and while the setting was attended by all of the usual ceremony and paraphernalia of a National political gathering the actual proceedings were suggestive of a love feast.

Not a dissenting voice was raised during the session. The question of negro representation from the South had caused friction earlier in the day in the National Committee, but there was no echo of this fight on the floor of the convention. The delegates were at times explosive in their enthusiasm. Many of the State delegations came into the hall singing and shouting in their delight at the birth of the new party, and three hours later left the building in the same happy frame of mind. Although green hands were supposed to be at the helm, the machinery of the convention worked smoothly and efficiently. There was no roll call of delegates, but the delegate section of the floor, arranged in the same manner as the Republican National Convention a few weeks ago and accommodating nearly 1,100 people, was entirely filled. The alternate section also had its full quota. There was not the same crush of spectators today as at the Republican gathering, but when the proceedings began the galleries had few empty seats. The convention leaders were enthusiastic tonight over the showing made in the Coliseum today and made the claim that no better looking, more substantial set of delegates was ever seen on the floor of a National political convention.

Work of the National Committee on contested cases caused a delay of nearly three quarters of an hour in the assembling of the convention. During the wait the delegates amused themselves with songs and yells composed for the occasion, while a band up near the flag draped steel rafters and a [illegible]d Army fife and drum corps on stage, vied with each other in ng patriotic airs.

ere was a great cheer as Senator h M. Dixon, National chairman e party, rapped for order. This repeated later when the call for convention was read, and there even greater enthusiasm when er Senator Albert J. Beveridge, diana, was presented as the choice e National Committee for tempochairman. The formality of elect- Senator Beveridge was not neces- and amid renewed excitement he escorted to a place on the stage, ated with a gold badge and hande convention gavel.

ator Beveridge then delivered key-note speech. The temporary man was given the closest attenthroughout. Once he mentioned dent Taft in connection with his val of the Payne tariff law, and ntly there came a storm of jeers groans from the crowd. Every minutes Senator Beveridge was upted by applause and cheering.

e usual standing committees were nted in the usual way and then e the first day's proceedings were ht to a close, James R. Garfield, io, moved the appointment of a mittee of 15 to invite Col. Roose- o appear before the convention at tomorrow.

e motion was carried with a p and tonight, with due ceremohe colonel formally accepted.

decided feature of the convention the large number of women dele- s. This called forth great cheerwhen the temporary chairman hed that part of his speech advog suffrage. A big yellow banner ribed "Votes for women" was g from one of the balcony rails. achusetts gave one of her women gates a place on the resolutions mittee, which will draft the party form.

omorrow's session of the conven- promised to be largely one of ech-making, with Col. Roosevelt's fession of Faith" as the center of erest. The adoption of a platform the nomination of President and e Presidential candidates will come ednesday, followed by adjournment at evening.

The head of a bull moose was one of e prominent decorations in the hall, d many of the delegates' songs were praise of the moose.

A red bandana had its prominent place in the day's proceedings, too. Almost all of the delegates were equipped with them and when they were waived the floor was a sea of red.

The General Situation.

For Vice President, Governor Hiram W. Johnson, of California.

For permanent chairman, Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of Denver.

This slate was virtually agreed to by National Progressive leaders tonight and met with the approval of Col. Theodore Roosevelt. The colonel endorsed strongly the suggestion that Judge Lindsey be recommended for permanent chairman. In regard to the Vice Presidential nomination, he took the position that it was for the convention to decide whom it would nominate, and that he would make no suggestions. He let it be known, however, that if the convention should decide upon Governor Johnson, the selection would meet with his approval.

Judge Lindsey's name will be presented to the committee on permanent organization tomorrow by a number of its most influential members and it was said tonight that his selection by the committee was virtually assured. The judge is a former Democrat, and is of Southern parentage, and it was felt that his selection would appeal to the South.

Col. Roosevelt said before he left Oyster Bay that he favored the selection of a Southern Democrat as a Vice Presidential candidate. The field was canvassed carefully by leaders of he new party and it is understood that the colonel's suggestion was abandoned only when it became evident that it was impossible to decide upon the available man. It was said tonight that the sentiment among the delegates in favor of Governor Johnson was so strong that his choice as Col Roosevelt's running mate was virtually assured, and that the leaders who predicted his nomination were voicing the opinion of the convention.

The California delegation passed a resolution today saying the State could not spare Governor Johnson, but it was said tonight the Governor's friends would not insist upon this attitude.

In the event of Governor Johnson's nomination it is planned to have him take the stump in the East, while Col. Roosevelt is campaigning through the West. The Governor's qualifications as a campaigner were said to be a strong factor in his favor.

When Col. Roosevelt reached Chicago this morning he put in a busy two hours before he succeeded in straightening out the tangle over the contesting negro delegates from the South. After he had been welcomed by a crowd of several thousand persons and had made a speech on the street in front of his hotel, he went to his headquarters and took the helm.

The Florida and Mississippi cases, which had not been ruled upon by the provisional National committee, were placed before him in detail and it developed that there was a sharp difference of opinion in the Roosevelt camp. A number of his Northern supporters told him frankly that they disapproved of the policy of barring all negro delegates from the South.

It was urged that such a position would cost the National Progressive ticket the support of a large number of negroes in Northern States in which their strength was greatly needed. Others of Col. Roosevelt's supporters felt that in fairness to the negroes they should have some representation from the South.

Col. Roosevelt stood his ground. In answer to every objection he said that he would cling unequivocally to the position he had taken and that, although it might cost him votes in the Northern States, he believed it was to the best interests of the party to proceed under white leadership in the South. He reiterated the statement made in his letter to Julian Harris, in Atlanta, that it was to the white man in the South that the negro must look, and declared his position was for the best interests of the negro. It was said tonight that all of his associates finally were won over fully to his point of view.

It is understood that Col. Roosevelt suggested the action in the Florida and Mississippi cases subsequently taken by the National Committee.

The Mississippi negroes were thrown out completely on the ground that the white delegates were regularly elected. Col. Roosevelt is said to have protested against the use of the word "white delegates" in the call for the Mississippi State convention.

In the Florida cases the contesting negro delegation was thrown out. The negroes protested loudly against this. They were invited to attend the convention as "supplemental delegates" without votes, but declined to do this, eventually going as "spectators". Then the National Committee decided to bar also the white delegates from Florida, there having been some question of irregularity in calling a white and negro convention separately.

Col. Roosevelt insisted that there should be no negro delegates from the South in the convention and the National Committee acquiesced in his view. The cases were taken before the convention committee on credentials today, but it was generally believed that committee would follow the action of the National Committee in adopting the colonel's view of the matter. In this connection some of the Progressive leaders tonight openly charged that some of the Taft leaders in the Republican party were behind the contest brought by the Southern negro delegates and had defrayed the expenses of the negroes in coming to Chicago. This the negroes stoutly denied.

Story of Day's Proceedings.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—The big Coliseum, transformed in a few weeks from the battleground of the Republican National Convention, to the meeting place of the new National Progressive party, was thrown open shortly before 11 o'clock today, but it was nearly an hour after that time before the first delegates began to arrive. They filtered in slowly at first, in ones and twos. Then came the big phalanx

MEETS RUNNING MATE TODAY

Wilson Will Call on Marshall Who Is Coming to Notification Ceremonies—Treasurer Not Yet Announced

Seagirt, N. J., August 5.—Governor Woodrow Wilson will pay his respects to Governor Marshall, of Indiana, his running mate, tomorrow night at Spring Lake, two miles from here. The Presidential nominee will call on the Vice Presidential candidate who will attend the notification exercises Wednesday. The meeting will be the first since the two men were chosen to head the Democratic ticket.

Governor Wilson said tonight that he looked forward to his meeting with Governor Marshall as he had formed a high admiration for the latter when his guest a year ago at a banquet of Indiana Democrats.

The Governor was unable, he said, at 9 o'clock tonight to announce the name of the treasurer of the National Committee agreed upon by him and National Chairman McCombs. The Governor added that he had been unable to communicate with Mr. McCombs during the day, but might hear from him any hour tonight.

Mr. McCombs was to have determined whether the man selected would accept. The Governor preferred, he said, not to give any intimation as to who his choice was.

During the day Governor Wilson saw but few callers. He met Representative James M. Graham, of Illinois, who was introduced by Cotter Bride, of Washington, D. C., a close friend of William Jennings Bryan. Mr. Bride stated as he left that he had a letter recently from Mrs. Bryan in which she wrote that Mr. Bryan "would do his part to make sure the election of Wilson and Marshall."

Mr. Bride also confirms earlier reports that Mr. Bryan would probably follow the itinerary of Colonel Roosevelt on the stump.

Governor Wilson will go to Trenton tomorrow where he has an appointment to meet Governor O'Neal, of Alabama.

Plans for the notification ceremonies here on Wednesday were completed tonight. A space will be roped off where 300 chairs will be provided for the more prominent guests. Governor Wilson himself has issued no invitations, but Senator-elect Ollie James, of Kentucky, as head of the notification committee, has invited the 22 Democratic Governors, Speaker Clark and Representative Underwood. These Democratic guests will be seated on the veranda of the Governor's cottage from which the Governor will deliver his speech of acceptance.

For the notification committee and their guests Governor and Mrs. Wilson will serve luncheon. Mrs. Wilson asked 15 of her personal friends to assist her.

A big crowd is expected to attend the exercises, but no arrangements have been made to police the grounds. Governor Wilson rejected the plan to have the militia act in this connection.

"HARVESTER TRUST" FILES ITS ANSWER

Ineternational Company Denies Charges of Restraint of Trade

WAS ORGANIZED FOR ECONOMY

The Company in Answering the Court's Bill Claims Very Little Profit is Made—Allege Farmer Has Been Helped.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 5.—The answer of the International Harvester Company to the bill filed by the United States under the Sherman anti-trust law was filed in the United States District Court at St. Paul today.

The answer denies specifically, all charges of restraint of trade, monopoly and unfair business practices. It alleges that prior to the formation of the company in 1902 the harvester business had been conducted in a wasteful manner, detrimental alike to manufacturers, retail dealers and consumers; that only the two largest manufacturers had profitable businesses, while the business of others was decreasing and becoming hazardous and unprofitable. The International Harvester Company, it is stated, was not an unlawful combination, but a new company formed with ample capital, in order to secure large economies in the agricultural implement business by producing more cheaply the raw materials, by enlarging facilities and correcting wasteful methods of distribution, by expanding the foreign trade and by better organized experimental and inspection departments.

The company's commercial power has been used not only for the benefit of its stockholders, but also for the benefit of the farmers and dealers and of its employes, and the taking on of new lines of manufactures such as gasoline engines, tractors, auto-wagons, farm wagons, cream separators and manure spreaders, has resulted in the business as a whole being conducted more economically and in fastering instead of restraining trade, it is asserted.

Any monopoly through patents is denied on the ground that the basic patents on binders and mowers expired prior to 1902.

The detailed statement of earnings and profits contained in the answer shows that, during the first eight years the dividends paid averaged only 5.92 per cent. on the fully paid capital stock and the total earnings only 7.15 per cent. and that the main expansion in the company's business has been gained in the new lines of implements and the foreign trade which has increased from about $10,000,000 in 1903 to over $42,000,000 in 1911.

It is held that the company has active and increasing competition, the number of competitors in binders being eight, with an aggregate capital of over $100,000,000 and in other lines the competitors numbering from 14 in mowers to 181 in gasoline engines.

The answer declares that the prices of harvesting machinery have increased about 3 per cent. over 1902, while the machines have been improved in quality and the materials and labor entering into their manufacture have increased on an average 25 per cent.

The answer alleges the company spends developing and improving machines annually $500,000, a cost which

The first convention of the National Progressive party opened in the Coliseum at Chicago yesterday, the day's deliberations being marked by complete harmony. Eleven hundred delegates were present, all of them white, the negroes from the South being allowed no representation.

The answer of the International Harvester Co., to the bill filed by the United States under the Sherman law as filed in the U. S. District Court at St. Paul, Minn., yesterday denies specifically all charges of restraint of trade, monopoly and unfair business practices.

The "system" in New York is raising a fund of $50,000 to defend Police Lieutenant Charles A. Becker, charged with instigating the murder of Gambler Rosenthal.

Gov. Hiram W. Johnson for Vice President and Judge Ben. B. Lindsay for permanent chairman, was the slate virtually agreed to by National Progressive leaders last night.

Gov. Wilson will call on his running mate, Gov. Marshall, tonight at Spring Lake, near Seagirt. Gov. Marshall is on his way to the notification ceremonies. Gov. Wilson's selection for National treasurer was not announced last night.

New York markets: Money on call steady, 2 1-2 to 2 7-8 per cent; ruling rate 2 3-4. Spot cotton closed quiet. Flour moderately active. Wheat, spot easy; New red 1.06 1-2 c.i.f. track and No. 2 red 1.07 3-4 f.o.b. afloat to arrive. Corn, spot easy; export 81 3-4 f.o.b. afloat. Oats nominal. Turpentine and rosin quiet.

Wanted in Connection With Murder.

Sam Schepps, well-known in New York gambling and gangster circles, is being sought by the police, it is said, on the suspicion that he was the one who actually paid the money over to the gunmen who shot to death Herman Rosenthal, the gambler-informer. One theory on which the District Attorney is believed to be working is that "Bridgie" Webber, the gambling house proprietor, who is now in custody in connection with the murder, furnished Schepps with the money at the instigation of Police Lieutenant Charles A. Becker, who is held in the Tombs prison on the charge of having planned and ordered the murder, and whom Rosenthal accused of having been his partner in the ownership of a gaming house.

TARIFF BILLS SENT TO TAFT

Iron and Steel Measures Signed by Clark and Bacon and Now Await President's Signature Or Veto

Wahisngton, D. C., Aug. 5.—The iron and steel tariff bill today received the signatures of Speaker Clark and Acting President of the Senate Bacon, and went to President Taft for his inspection. This is the first of the tariff revision bills passed by the Democratic-Progresive alliance in the Senate, to reach the Chief Executive; and close friends of the President express the conviction that he will veto it, because no investigation of the industry has been made by the Tariff Board upon which to base a scientific tariff revision.

An attempt by the conferees on the excise tax bill to reach an agreement on that measure was not successful. After a session of over an hour, the conference committee adjourned until tomorrow. It is understood that Democrats have not fallen in with the plans of the Senate alliance on this measure.

Senator LaFollette had but five Progressives behind him today when he forced through the Senate the compromise wool tariff bill, representing the agreement with the House between the rates of the LaFollette and Underwood bills. The measure which had passed the House last week, passed the Senate by a vote of 35 to 28, and as soon as signed by the proper officers, will follow the Steel bill to the White House.

Senator Simmons, the Democratic tariff leader in the Senate, made an ineffectual attempt to secure a vote Friday on the cotton bill passed by the House last week. Spurred on by the success of the Democratic-Progressive forces on the other bills, the House sent the cotton bill over at the end of the week.

Senator Penrose reported it out from the Finance Committee today with an unfavorable report. He did not oppose Senator Simmons' request for the vote on the measure Friday, but the plan failed because of the demand of other members that appropriation measures and the Panama canal bill be given the right-of-way.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 5.—While trying to operate an elevator in the Wesley Memorial church today, Leon Faustman, aged 14, a student in the Vacation Bible School, was crushed to death. Young Faustman climbed into the cage in the basement and started it upward. Becoming frightened, he tried to jump out, and was caught between the cage and floor. Investigation showed that the child's neck had been broken.

MARINES LAND IN NICARAGUA

American Bluejackets Protect Citizens Of United States and Their Property—Threatened Anarchy Disappears

Washington, August 5.—American bluejackets and marines were landed in Nicaragua late Saturday night for the protection of citizens of the United States and their property. The expedition, part of the force of the gunboat Annapolis, under Lieutenant James A. Campbell, Jr., was landed at Corinto, the principal seaport on the Pacific side and transported by rail to Managua, the capital, arriving there early Sunday morning. Lawlessness and threatened anarchy disappeared and quiet took their places with the arrival of the bluejackets, according to Minister Weitzen's reports today.

The landing of American forces was made only after President Diaz had confessed the inability of his government to protect the American-owned railroad line from Corinto to Managua and the steamers on Lake Managua. Some of the latter had been seized by the revolutionists under General Mena, deposed minister of war. Minister Weitzel demanded of Mena the return of vessels his men had taken and used as warships in the attack upon Managua.

The American minister reported that foreigners concur with resident Americans in Managua; that this action on the part of the American naval commander was the only move that could have prevented complete anarchy and the spread of disorder throughout Central America.

DANISH NATIONAL PARK

Inauguration Takes Place Before a Huge Gathering

Copenhagen, Denmark, Aug. 5.—The inauguration of the Danish-American National Park in the rebuilt hills of Jutland took place today before a huge gathering which included several thousand Danish-Americans. The park has been presented to the government of Denmark by the Danish citizens of the United States and numbers of these journeyed to the rebuilt hills to witness the formal ceremonies of the opening of the reservation to the public. Among the speeches at the opening was one by Dr. Maurice Francis Egan, American minister to Denmark, on "What Americans Owe to the Danes."

Bristol, Va., Aug. 5.—Rube Merchant, of the Johnson City team of the Appalachian League, who a few weeks ago established a record in a game against Knoxville by allowing only 27 men to face him in a nine-inning game, today pitched a no-hit nine-inning game against Bristol, being the first in the history of the local league. He won his game 5 to 1.

RAISING FUND FOR BECKER'S DEFENSE

"System" Collecting $50,000 to Aid Indicted Police Lieutenant

WAS ARRAIGNED YESTERDAY

The Man Charged With Instigating Murder of Rosenthal Represented by Three Lawyers — One of Them Disappears.

New York, Aug. 5.—A police fund of $50,000 is being raised for the defense of Charles Becker, the police lieutenant charged with instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, according to information in the hands of District Attorney Whitman tonight.

The money is being collected, it is said, by the so-called "system," which, aside from the murder case, is to be investigated by the district attorney, who believes there is a corrupt alliance between the "system" and the gambling fraternity, founded on graft and blackmail.

Information of the $50,000 fund came to the prosecutor today in connection with the arraignment of Becker to answer the indictment against him.

In the legal proceedings which included the withdrawal by Becker of his plea of "not guilty" to offer motions to invalidate the indictment, the prisoner was represented by three lawyers, one of whom mysteriously withdrew, while the others seemed doubtful of their own status, when the proceedings were over. It was said that the lawyers were not satisfactory to collectors of the defense fund, who, the district attorney heard, have practically engaged a prominent criminal lawyer to defend the lieutenant.

John W. Hart, who conducted today's proceedings, after withdrawing his client's plea of "not guilty," made one motion to dismiss the indictment on the ground that it was irregular and another to review the grand jury minutes and take evidence to show whether the ground for the indictment was sufficient.

Judge Mulqueen refused to hear the arguments, on the motion, today, and set the case over until Wednesday.

Hart, in his application to inspect the jury minutes, held that the evidence produced was not legal in that it was testimony of accomplices in the alleged crime, namely "Jack" Rose, "Bridgie" Webber and Harry Vallon.

The fact that Becker was to appear for arraignment attracted an immense crowd to the Criminal Courts building. Among them were many gamblers and characters of the underworld. The crowd eventually became so dense that corridors were cleared and only persons having business were admitted to the court.

Becker, looking somewhat pale from his week of prison life, walked from the Tombs across the Bridge of Sighs to the court room with a firm step and maintained a self-possessed but grave demeanor during the proceedings.

Although the district attorney says he has evidence that he could use in pressing a charge of extortion against the lieutenant in connection with his relations with the gamblers as head of the "strong arm" squad, the prosecutor said tonight that he proposed to press only the murder charge at present and that he would not hasten the trial until his evidence to support the latter was in shape. If the argument of Attorney Hart should prevail to quash the present indictment it would be easy to supercede it with another indictment, Mr. Whitman said, on the additional evidence he had collected.

While the police are searching the Catskills for "Gib the Blood" and "Lefty Louie", two of the alleged murderers of Rosenthal, private detectives employed by the district attorney are looking for them in Boston.

The district attorney had a voluntary witness before him today who accused two policemen of failing to arrest the missing men when he pointed them out to the officers in West 42nd street two days ago. The man said he knew them both, but that the policemen refused to leave their fixed posts to arrest them. Both policemen admitted that the witness had pointed out two men to them as "Gib the Blood" and "Lefty Louie", but said that they did not dare to leave their fixed posts for fear of being fined.

The board of aldermen this afternoon adopted a resolution providing for an investigation of the police department. A special committee, headed by Alderman Curran, was appointed to conduct the investigation, while $25,000 was appropriated to bear the expenses. Six Republicans or fusionists and three Democrats comprise the committee. It was reported without confirmation that the committee desired to hear Mayor Gaynor as the first witness.

Anniston, Ala., Aug. 5.—The commission form of government suffered its first defeat in Alabama here today. The vote was 646 against 191 for a commission.

Hundreds Visited Agricultural Train At Chadbourn and Fairmont

The Atlantic Coast Line agricultural train which was parked on the siding on the local yards since Friday, left yesterday morning on the third and final week of the tour of the system in North Carolina, visiting Chadbourn in the morning and Fairmont in the afternoon. A message received by The Star last night was to the effect that the train met with enthusiastic reception at both the places visited and that the crowds were the largest of the tour. The message stated that 400 farmers visited the train at Chadbourn and nearly 1,000 turned out at Fairmont. Decided interest was manifested in the three special features of the train, towit: The live stock exhibit, farm implements and drainage. The lecture was heard with the greatest interest and the tillers of the soil received much information from the experts. The train will visit Parkton and Laurinburg today; Steadman Manchester tomorrow and the tour will be completed at Jonesboro Thursday.

SOCIAL SESSION WAS HELD.

Enjoyable Meeting Last Night of the Daughters of Liberty.

New Hanover Council, No. 6, Daughters of Liberty, the woman's branch of the Junior Order, held a social session last night following the regular meeting. Mr. J. N. Maxwell, of Salisbury, State Councilor, was present and made a most interesting and instructive address. In behalf of the Council Mr. J. W. Russ presented to Mr. Maxwell a handsome bouquet, which was happily received by him. Following the remarks of Mr. Maxwell refreshments were served. It was one of the most enthusiastic and enjoyable meetings held by the Council in a long time.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The Bijou, as a feature of one of its big films today, will present the novel and decidedly thrilling spectacle of a race between an engine and a touring car. This will be the most exciting incident ever portrayed in a film. "A Beast at Bay," which deals with the escape of a convict, the thrilling search by a posse, the stealing of an auto by the felon and a race between the auto and the engine, the latter being in charge of several of those engaged in the man hunt. This film, pronounced a wonderful masterpiece, will be given with all necessary effects, and should not be missed.

The Bijou has another notable star today, dealing with a theme far away from the ordinary. It will be "Ansona's Baptism" and it tells in graphic manner of the work of a missioner among a savage tribe and which results in his being condemned to death. The way of his rescue and the reformation of the tribesmen are both not only thrilling, but decidedly beautiful and impressive. It is a great dramatic film of much novelty.

There are other photoplays on today at the Bijou and they, too, will be stars, while the usual solid comfort to be found at the delightful amusement palace will prove very attractive. It should be remembered also that the Bijou's tiny price of admission—5 cents—holds forth afternoon and night.

At the Grand Theatre.

Yesterday the new week at the Grand Theatre opened most auspiciously. The announcement of the extra big bill, the music by the orchestra and the always delightful environment of the house, coupled with the very low price of admission for the class of attractions offered, served to attract the people in large numbers and the house was crowded at the evening and night performances.

Today the bill will be none the less notable. "His Second Love", a Pathe, is intensely and humanly interesting and deals with a phase of human life that is always well worth studying. The natural craving for the strange and difficult is well satisfied in an Eclipse to be offered today. It is entitled "A Mysterious Case" and the plot certainly keeps the house guessing. Lacking the necessary money to complete an experiment, an inventor calls at the house of his brother for a loan. The brother is a miser and refuses the loan, a quarrel ensues and the neighbors are attracted just in time to see the inventor steal from the house while the miser is found unconscious on the floor with a large wound in the forehead. The police are called and a girl gets into the case. The miser is restored to consciousness and is surprised to find that his brother, the inventor, is charged with the crime. Just how it did occur is well told in the picture.

Besides these two there will be a third film equally as interesting and pleasing. Remember the price of admission is always the same—five cents.

Souvenir Dance tonight. **

WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH

Sunday's Columbia State: "Misses Mamie and Ethel Smethurst have returned from their vacation, which was spent at Raleigh, N. C., and Wrightsville Beach."

A souvenir dance for grown people will be given at Lumina tonight. The souvenirs for this occasion are said to be especially attractive. A large attendance is expected.

Misses Nouna Illjes and Agnes Crook, of Columbia, Ga., after spending several weeks most pleasantly at the Seashore Hotel, expect to leave tomorrow for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Carter and little son, who have been spending some time at the Hanover Inn, went to their home in the city Sunday, but may return to the beach later in the month.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Jarnigan and little daughter, Miss Erksine Jarnigan, who have been spending the Summer at the Seashore Hotel, expects to leave for home tomorrow.

Raleigh News and Observer, Sunday: "Mrs. William Walker Jones and daughters, Misses Margaret and Susan, left yesterday morning for Wrightsville Beach for a two week stay."

Sunday's Charlotte Observer: "Mr. and Mrs. P. C. McGinn have returned from Wrightsville Beach after a stay of 10 days there and with relatives at Mebane. They are at home on South Boulevard."

Mrs. John Watt and little son, of Reidsville are guests at the Seashore Hotel. She will be joined today by Mrs. Henry Pemberton, of Fayetteville, and they will spend some time at the resort.

During the concert at the Seashore Hotel Sunday morning Mrs. Frank Pearson, the noted singer, rendered several charming selections that greatly pleased the large audince assembled to hear the concert.

Col. Frederick Wakefield Patterson and Maj. Joseph Browning Jackaway, two of Atlanta's most prominent business men, left yesterday for their home, after a very pleasant sojourn of several days at the Oceanic Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bell and children, of Atlanta, arrived Sunday to spend the remainder of the Summer at the Hanover Inn. Mr. Bell is chief clerk to the general manager of the Southern Railway in Atlanta and will be in and out, but his family will remain at the resort until the season closes.

The finest concert given at the Oceanic Hotel this season was that Sunday at noon, when the orchestra was enlarged to 12 pieces. There were probably 400 people crowded into the lobby and on the verandas to hear the beautiful numbers on the programme. The concert was heartily enjoyed by all.

Yesterday's arrivals at the Seashore Hotel included E. S. Tyler, C. F. Hooks and T. L. Hooks, Nichols, S. C.; R. C. Cullen and W. T. Torrent, Batesburg, S. C.; B. VanNess, Baltimore; J. N. Robbins, Pittsburg; Harry Green, Sumter; Mrs. A. A. Cohen and Miss Beatrice Cohen, Florence, S. C.; Miss N. Alexander, Darlington, S. C.

The splendid concert given at Lumina Sunday night by Prof. John F. Kneisel and his orchestra, which was enlarged for the occasion by the addition of a number of extra instruments, fully justified all the claims made in the advance notices. It was certainly a fine concert and would have done credit to any orchestra in the country.

In common with other parts of State there was a decided drop in the temperature at Wrightsville Beach Saturday night and overcoats and wraps were very much in demand Sunday and Sunday night. There were only a few persons in the surf. The weather was not so chilly yesterday and a large number went in the surf from the hotels and at Lumina. It is expected that regular Summer-time weather will prevail again today.

Among the arrivals yesterday at the Oceanic Hotel were: Jas. T. Yarborough and Chas. P. Gilchrist, Mullins, S. C.; Miss Lee and Miss Garney, Dunn; Miss Seay, Charlotte; B. Wallace Jones and family, Lake City, S. C.; Selden Jones, Atlanta; A. H. Nathan, Charlotte; Thos. W. Smith, New York; J. P. Moore, Atkinson; E. A. Moore, Currie; Miss Atwood Moore, Atlanta; Ray R. Sisk, Shelby; Miss Annie May Vogel, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Max Lasaras, Macon; S. M. Ottenger, Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

Arrivals Sunday at the Oceanic Hotel included the following: Robt. L. Graveley, Cola, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Parham, Fayetteville; Ben W. Covington, Florence, S. C.; Miss Margaret Small and Miss Gussie Cashwell, Fayetteville; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Butt, Jr., L. Butt, C. D. Moore, Miss Louise Seay, Miss Lizzie Seay, Billie Moore, Bessie Seay, Clinton; E. Cameron, Southern Pines; A. R. Harris, Roseboro; W. A. Bohannan, Grantville, Ga.; W. H. Taut and W. B. Carson, Hamlet; N. E. Armstrong and Miss Georgia Tyler, Allen, S. C.; E. M. Brown, Wallace; G. B. Robbins, Baltimore; D. M. Anderson and C. G. Bagby, Chattanooga; M. T. Hinson, Rockingham; E. A. Cronheim, Atlanta; Miss Lena Scholder, Miss Minnie Light, Mrs. J. Hollis and Miss Clara Scholder, Birmingham; G. C. Whitted, Elizabethtown.

Sunday's arrivals at the Seashore Hotel were as follows: Geo. W. Pritchard, Greensboro; J. W. Pearce, S. W. Sparger, R. H. Sykes, Durham; Miss Rebecca Nichols and Miss Meta Nichols, Nichols, S. C.; R. H. Bradford, Miss Lila Whitehead and Miss Janette Moore, Burgaw; W. H. Hinson and John Turner, Rocky Mount; Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Davidson, Goldsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. White, Norfolk; Mrs. John Watts, Reidsville; Mrs. S. W. Cooper and Miss Allen Cooper, Fayetteville; J. C. Shaw and F. E. Moore, Rockingham; R. L. Goldsmith and J. R. Henry, Greenville, S. C.; P. M. Crosland, L. C. McArthur, D. S. Johns, Bennettsville, S. C.; G. M. Graham, Raleigh; C. H. Andrews, Greensboro; J. D. Manning, Dillon; J. H. Rutledge, Charlotte; R. A. Mayer, Chattancoga; H. S. Cobbs, and E. D. Cobbs, Birmingham; Miss Inez Bragg and Miss Thelma Dickinson, Macon, Ga.; Talmage C. Yoing, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Collins, Jr., Birmingham.

In spite of the unfavorable weather a large crowd attended the concerts at Lumina Sunday night to hear Mrs. Frank Pearson sing. Her singing continues to attract the crowds and to win the admiration of all who hear her. At Sunday afternoon's concert Mrs. Pearson sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold" in such a way as to thrill the hearts of her audience and to call forth such hearty applause as to make an encore necessary. Her encore was "Dreams, Just Dreams," which she also rendered very effectively. So beautiful was her rendition of "Silver Threads Among the Gold" that she was asked to repeat it at the night concert. This she did, singing it as an encore to "The Lost Chord" which was her regular programme number for the night concert, and which received flattering reception. The patrons of Lumina will no doubt be delighted to learn that Mrs. Pearson has been persuaded to extend her engagement at Lumina to the end of August.

Church of the Good Shepherd.

During the absence of Rev. Thomas P. Noe for the next few weeks, the work at the Church of the Good Shepherd will be in charge of Mr. George F. Hill, who is assisting Mr. Noe, by appointment of the Bishop. Mr. Hill will be glad to make any sick calls, or to respond in any other way that he can be of service to the congregation. Mr. Hill's 'phone number is 1902, and his address is 120 North Seventh street.

The Trials of a Traveler.

"I am a traveling salesman," writes E. E. Youngs, E. Berkshire, Vt., "and was often troubled with constipation and indigestion till I began to use Dr King's New Life Pills, which I have found an excellent remedy." For all stomach, liver or kidney troubles they are unequaled. Only 25 cents at R. R. Bellamy.

MALARIA—BLOOD POVERTY

Malaria is a species of blood poverty known as Anaemia; the circulation becomes so weak and impure that it is unable to supply the system with sufficient nourishment and strength to preserve ordinary health. In the first stages of Malaria the complexion grows pale and sallow, the appetite is affected, the system grows bilious, and there is a general feeling of weakness. As the circulation becomes more thoroughly saturated with the malarial infection, the digestion is deranged, chills and fever come and go, skin diseases, boils, sores and ulcers break out, and the entire health becomes impaired. Malaria can only be cured by removing the germs from the blood. S. S. S. destroys every particle of malarial infection and builds up the blood to a strong nourishing condition. Then the system receives its proper amount of nutriment, sallow complexions grow ruddy and healthful, the liver and digestion are righted and every symptom of Malaria passes away. S. S. S. cures in every case because it purifies the blood. S. S. S. is a safe and pleasant remedy as well as an efficient one. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.

"Insist on Getting the Polarine Brand of Automobile Lubricants"

Said an experienced motorist, and he gave the following reasons:

"The Polarine brand is manufactured and recommended by the Standard Oil Company, the most reliable oil refiners and manufacturers in the world.

"The Polarine brand can be obtained everywhere, as the Standard Oil Company has unrivalled facilities for distribution.

"The Polarine brand covers a complete line of oil products for every part of the car, and I believe this line fits the needs of the average motorist better than any other on the market."

Polarine

is the brand name for the following line of automobile lubricants:

Polarine Oil. For Cylinders. Leaves practically no carbon; does not thin out at any speed or heat. Sold in barrels and half barrels; also in one and five-gallon cans.

Polarine Transmission Lubricants. Three grades, from semi-fluid to semi-solid, to suit the different types of transmissions and for differentials and ball and roller bearings under all conditions.

Polarine Fibre Grease. A solid lubricant, high melting point, adapted for use on parts requiring a fibrous grease.

BAILEY SPEAKS AT BURGAW

Eloquent Young North Carolinan Addresses Pender County Simmons Club—His Record in the Senate.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., Aug. 5.—Hon. J. W. Bailey addressed the Simmons Club of Pender county at Burgaw today. A large number of farmers and others who are interested in the issues of the day were present. The address of Mr. Bailey was replete with information on the course of Senator Simmons in the past and his course in the future when he will succeed himself as Senior Senator from North Carolina.

Mr. T. J. Armstrong, Jr., of Rocky Point, introduced Mr. Bailey with the following pertinent remarks: "Is the Democratic party of North Carolina out of harmony? We now ask Mr. Bailey what he thinks of the leadership of Democracy?"

Mr. Bailey said that he had been going up and down North Carolina for the past 20 years when he began active public work in the way of speaking. He had spoken in nearly every county of North Carolina with the exception of Pender. He was proud to meet Pender's Democracy. He was here on his own expense. He counted it an asset that he was able to meet so fine a looking body of men. Three months from today the sun will set on a Democratic calendar. He felt sure that the next President of these United States will be Woodrow Wilson. He was sure that North Carolina's next Governor will be that stalwart mountaineer—Locke Craig; that North Carolina's next Senator elected will be Furnifold M. Simmons.

"Equal rights to all and special privileges to none shall be wrought out in this broad land of ours and that right and justice shall prevail. The Republican party is dead, boys; she's dead," he said. He said it ought to have been dead before she brought forth Roosevelt. "You see it written on the door of the party—'Ichabod, your glory has departed'."

Mr. Bailey said he was here this morning on a special mission—not as a special pleader for anyone of the candidates; he was not here with a view of misrepresenting. His mission was one to impart correct and full information on the Senatorial contest and the criticisms that have been passed on Senator Simmons.

He regarded the welfare of the Democratic party as absolutely essential to the welfare of the State. He could not see how men could go up and down the State and sow discord to disrupt harmony in North Carolina. "Do you remember Aycock's last message? he asked. The speaker had often thought of him since he was taken. Great as our loss is we are not without a magnificent legacy from him. How regardful he was of the interests of the Democratic party. He would not attack Governor Kitchin's record as Governor. He would not attack Judge Walter Clark's record, who has for the past 34 years been on the bench of North Carolina. Governor Kitchin's course has been an attack on the State Executive Committee, Senator Simmons, the Democratic platform. His attacks on Senator Simmons are that he is republicanizing North Carolina. Why does not Governor Kitchin run on his own record? He has had 14 years of political life. Why does not Governor Kitchin come up and say what he has done? They tell us the Governors are where they can't do much. Where has Woodrow Wilson risen? Just you watch Locke Craig and see what he will do for the good roads movement. Why has not Governor Kitchin taken up the unjust discrimination of freights; other States, our neighbors, are getting the benefit. Why not North Carolina? he inquired.

Where is Senator Simmons today? he further asked. Has he attacked anybody? Has he read anybody out of the party? He has stayed there in Washington and fought the battles of the people and the Nation.

He asked his audience which of the two men have conducted themselves aright—Simmons, who has asked no odds but has remained at his post, or Mr. Kitchin, who the past 15 months has gone up and down the land reading Senator Simmons out of the party.

Mr. Bailey then completely illustrated the fallacy of reciprocity by quoting from a speech of Governor Aycock. He was not surprised at Mr. Taft or Mr. Aldrich for criticising Senator Simmons, but he was surprised at a North Carolinian for catechising. "What, Simmons out of harmony with the Democratic party?" he exclaimed. Judge Clark says he is not progressive; that nobody but him is progressive. The State and National Democratic platform stands on progress. All of the Simmons measures have been progressive."

Now the other side, he said. Senator Simmons was put in his seat for what he did; we wish to keep him there for what he is doing. He is the leader of the Senate at this hour and is so honored by the leading New York papers and every Senator. He deserves re-election from our State because he has done more for us than any other Senator. More in the 11 years that he has been in the Senate than any other Senator for 125 years—a big, bold assertion, but nevertheless true. He should be elected for the great good he has done the farmers. He fought Wickersham on the cotton issue. He has fought for National aid to the roads over which the farmers' mail daily goes. He is ever at the front fighting for progress. North Carolina can't afford to repudiate him.

MANN EXONERATED.

Greensboro Board of Education Endorses City Superintendent.

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 3.—The board of commissioners of Greensboro which under the commission form of government is also the board of education, this afternoon exonerated City Superintendent of Schools J. L. Mann from all blame in connection with the administration of his duties for the past two years. More than this, he was given high endorsement as a man and educator, which had been thoroughly established by the investigation of charges against him. When Clerk Michaux had completed the reading of the paper, the applause was long, loud and apparently unanimous.

FIREWORKS DISPLAY.

Hundreds Witnessed Fine Exhibition at Lumina Last Night.

It is estimated that between 2,000 and 3,000 people witnessed the fireworks display in front of Lumina at Wrightsville Beach last night. This was the second exhibition of the kind given this year by the Tidewater Power Company and was pronounced a great success by all who attended. It even surpassed the first exhibition given about two weeks ago. The display last night consisted almost entirely of aerial fireworks, that is, rockets, bombs, parachutes and other pieces of the character which are displaced high in the air, and on this account the entire exhibition was easily seen by each and every one of the spectators. The bombs, rockets, etc., which made up the exhibition, were of many different kinds, shapes and colors and were shot off in rapid succession which made a very beautiful and effective display. The pieces that probably elicited the greatest applause from the spectators were the Tourbillions, or revolving rockets, of which there were quite a number. It is estimated about 1,500 people went down from the city and 1,000 or more beach guests and residents also witnessed the display.

REUNION OF VETERANS

Annual Gathering of Old Soldiers at Winston-Salem This Week

The annual reunion of the Confederate veterans of North Carolina will be held in Winston-Salem tomorrow and Thursday and will be attended by 15 or 20 old soldiers from Wilmington and New Hanover county. Among those who expect to go from here are Gen. Jas. I. Metts, L. Leon, A. W. Watson, A. F. Cox and others. The Twin-City has made elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the visitors. Tonight the old soldiers will be entertained at a band concert on the Court House square and the feature selection will be "The Skirmish," which consists of old band pieces played during the war, interspersed throughout by the rattle of musketry. Over 100 shots will be fired during the rendition of the selection.

Wednesday is the first day of the reunion and will be featured by an address by Hon. Locke Craig, of Asheville, Democratic nominee for Governor. Thursday, the closing day, will be featured by the grand parade.

MARRIED IN PETERSBURG.

Miss Bessie Hurst Becomes Bride of Mr. M. P. Livesay.

Many friends in this city of Mr. M. P. Livesay and Miss Bessie Gertrude Hurst, the popular and attracive daughter of Mr. W. M. Hurst, were surprised yesterday, when a telegram was received by the father of the young lady saying that they were married at Petersburg, Va., at noon, having left Wilmington Sunday evening on the 7 o'clock train. Other members of the family were at Carolina Beach Sunday and did not know of the young lady's departure until their return in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Livesay will live at Brandon, Va., the former home of the groom, who has lived in Wilmington for the past year or two. He has many friends in this city who will wish for him and his bride the full measure of happiness and prosperity in their wedded life.

Sunday's Atlanta Constitution: "Miss May Shepard has returned from Wrightsville——Miss Agnes Strickland has just returned from an outing of ten days at Wrightsville Beach.——Mr. John G. Evins and his mother, Mrs. John C. Evins, will return Monday from Wrightsville Beach. Mrs. John C. Evins and children will return the last of the week.——Mrs. Emma Wood will spend a few days with friends in the country and will then go to Wrightsville Beach for her vacation."

DAY'S DOINGS IN RALEIGH

State Board of Elections Meets—Marion Butler Not Wanted by "Mooseers"—Chairman Webb in Raleigh—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 5.—The details of the contract of the Citizens' National Bank with the Boyle-Robertson Construction Co., Washington, D. C., for the erection of the 11-story banking house and office building at the corner of Fayetteville and Martin streets, are being worked out and it is expected that the work of construction will begin about September 1st. This is the third handsome bank building to be gotten under way within the past year.

Corporation Commissioner W. T. Lee arrived today from his home at Waynesville, where he has been for nearly three months recovering from severe injuries he received there in a runaway accident. He has by no means fully recovered yet, but is able to get about very well by the use of a stout stick to steady himself with. He has no disfigurement, although he was terribly cut and bruised about the face and head in being thrown from the buggy and dragged. The shock to his nerves seems to have been his most severe injury.

Appeals are coming in steadily for docketing in the Supreme Court preparatory for the opening of the court for the Fall term on the last Monday in this month. The first day is to be devoted to the examination of applicants for license to practice law. It is understood that each of the law schools in the State, notably University, Wake Forest and Trinity, will send good sized classes for the examination, the number of applicants to most likely be well up to the average.

The wife of Police Officer W. A. Buck died at their home here this morning. Mrs. Buck was 35 years old and leaves a husband and three children nearly grown. The funeral will be conducted tomorrow.

The following charters for new enterprises were issued today: The French Broad Handle Co., of Brevard, capital $25,000 authorized and $10,000 subscribed by R. P. and W. A. Walker, D. B. Linckus and Robert Reece, for making handles, spokes and similar articles of wood.

The Southern Pines Improvement Co., of Southern Pines, capital $25,000 authorized and $2,500 subscribed by R. E. Wiley, J. S. Hartness, J. N. Powell and others for general real estate and building investments.

The Byrd-House Co., of Bunn Level, capital $25,000 authorized and $2,500 subscribed by J. C. Byrd, E. L. House and others, for mercantile business.

The Companies of the North Carolina Coast Artillery are gathering just now at Fort Caswell, at the mouth of the Cape Fear river, for coast defense practice, August 5th to 16th, with the regulars stationed at the fort. Adjt. Gen. R. L. Leinster expects to go down to Fort Caswell for a visit while the Coast Artillery companies of the Guard are there.

Col. J. C. L. Harris, who was one of the original "Bull Moosers" in this State, and went to Chicago and fought for "T. R." from the jump, has taken on a considerable degree of disgust at the threatened domination of former Senator Marion Butler in the North Carolina campaign for Roosevelt. He declares that if there is not something done to stop this Butler invasion of the Roosevelt campaign, Roosevelt's new party will lose 20,000 votes. He insists that the people of this State just will not stand for anything that smacks of Butler domination. He believes that if Butler would just be hands off Roosevelt would roll up a splendid vote in this State.

The complete premium list for the 1912 State Fair—the 52nd State Fair—is just issued and is the most complete yet issued.

Dr. H. C. Roberts, Danville, Va., has succeeded Dr. E. C. Judd as resident physician at Rex Hospital here. Dr. Judd to take up general practice in Raleigh. Rex is an especially well equipped hospital now.

Tuesday afternoon, August 6th, there will take place the laying of the cornerstone for the Y. M. C. A. building going up at the southeast corner of Capital Square. Grand Master W. B. McKoy will be in charge of the ceremonies for the Grand Lodge of Masons. The principal address will be by Hon. Locke Craig, Democratic nominee for Governor. There will be a special choir for the music. G. C. Huntington, of Charlotte, Inter-State Y. M. C. A. secretary, will extend greetings to the Raleigh association workers. The orator of the day, Mr. Craig, will be introduced by State Treasurer B. R. Lacy.

Democratic State Chairman Chas. A. Webb, is here today to consult with and make recommendations to the State Board of Elections, says he will open his headquarters in Raleigh about August 20th, and that in the meantime, he is pushing the interests of the party and the pending campaign as vigorously as possible from his Asheville office.

The State Board of Elections today named boards of elections in each county in the State, the appointments being on recommendation of the county executive committees, two Democrats and one Republican. However, the list will not be made public for some days yet. The State board also fixed the size of ballots for use in the general election. State tickets will be 3 1-2 by 12 inches, Presidential ticket 3 1-2 by 8 inches; Congressional ticket 3 1-2 by 2 inches. State board consists of Col. Wilson G. Lamb, chairman, Williamston; J. C. Clifford, Dunn, secretary; J. F. Ray, Franklin, Democrats, and W. I. Davis, Hendersonville, and Clarence Call, Wilkesboro, Republicans. Ray and Davis were not here for the meeting. New Hanover's board consists of Jno. S. McEachern, Robt. C. DeRosset, Democrats; William Struthers, Jr., Republican.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Tuesday, August 6, 1912.

What bandwagon is that?

Locking horns in South Carolina is no joke.

Three months from today we may know who will be elected President.

The only match for a dictagraph would be a bunch of women all talking at once.

When a politician says "My wife made me what I am," is he trying to put the blame on her?

New York probably is not worse than any other city which is the Mecca of the refuse population of all the countries of the world.

The Bull Moose says he appeals to the "rank and file." He can have all the rank ones, but the file should stand by Wilson.

Uncle Joe has kept quiet a long time but recent occurrences show that he has been unostentatiously harboring malice against the Democrats.

When too much water gets into stock it won't float any more than a water-logged ship will do it. Sooner or later water will do its work.

Savannah's first bale of new cotton was received last week from Dodge county, Georgia. It classed middling and sold at 30 1-2 cents per pound at auction.

A Springfield minister predicts the beginning of the milennium January 1st. Probably he has foreseen the good results of the election of Woodrow Wilson.

"What has gotten New York into such a condition?" inquires a metropolitan newspaper. Well, from this distance, we infer that it is the gun and the son-of-a-gun.

One of Teddy's new planks is "Thou Shalt Not Steal.' He ought first to clear up his past record by giving us an Outlook article on "How I Took Panama Without Stealing It."

We hate a campaign which is characterized by charges and discharges, criminations and recriminations. At the same time, a man should not run for office unless he is certain he can prove an alibi.

Everybody in the world will be crazy in 150 years is the belief of an eminent London physician. The varying political views of men at this time shows that the bats are flying at a lively clip at the present time.

Roosevelt has been telling the "plain people" that he is for them, but the report of the Stanley committee on the Steel Trust investigation, shows that the Colonel will have to do a great deal of explaining to the plain people.

Woodrow Wilson took a trip to New York on Saturday and failed to attract any notice because he preferred to go along quietly like any other passenger. Fancy another Presidential candidate who would go five miles without speaking a world message by the yard!

With things stirred up over the Presidential campaign and South Carolina Democrats pulling off a rousing primary contest over the Governorship, the Tenth Congressional District of Georgia is again in eruption. Bill Fleming is trying to oust Sam Hardwick from Congress, and Sam refuses to be pried loose. But look who's in the fight on the side of Bill! It was Tom Watson who relped Sam to put Bill out in 1902, and now he is making trouble in favor of Fleming. The red-headed Georgian seems always to be against the fellow who is in.

SENATORIAL PUBLICITY

Governor Kitchin, one of North Carolina's distinguished candidates for the United States Senate, recently visited Charlotte and delivered a speech to a large audience at Lakewood Park. In his speech the Governor had a great deal to say about the newspaper business policy of charging candidates for the publication of their personal campaign thunder, and he took occasion to call attention to the fact that most of the State papers oppose him. The Governor may have just reason to complain in some instances but so do Senator Simmons and Judge Clark. Partisan papers have had some harsh and unseemly things to say about all three candidates, but most of The Star exchanges appear to be as fair as they can under the circumstances.

We do not think half as many papers oppose Governor Kitchin as he supposes. They may favor Senator Simmons but in doing that they do not "oppose" the Governor any more than they oppose Judge Clark, or than they opposed the lamented ex-Governor Aycock before death removed him from the Senatorial campaign. As a matter of fact, many papers are favorable to the candidacy of Senator Simmons without opposing Governor Kitchin. That is they have made no fight on the Governor while favoring their man. We don't recall any instances in which any attempt has been made to place the Governor in a false light, and very few, if any, have ever discussed the Governor's record.

Governor Kitchin, like Senator Simmons and Judge Clark, has made his record with the best intentions. We believe each of them have reason to be proud of their records, and while each or all of them may have advocated measures or done things about which there may be honest differences as to the judgment displayed, the Democracy as a whole can point with pride to those records as a whole. However, the aggressive Governor himself set the pace for discussing and attacking records, and he has rightly claimed that any man's record is open to discussion. So it is, and we believe that Kitchin, Simmons and Clark have records that will sucessfully withstand a whole lot of discussion. Those records belong to the Democratic party and if they can be successfully attacked it is the Democratic party which will have to bear the brunt of it. For that reason, early in the campaign, The Star urged the candidates to steer clear of attacking each other's records but rather that each stand upon his own record and whatever promises he could make that would most appeal to Democrats. The Governor himself "started something," however, and if records are discussed either fairly or unfairly in this campaign any candidate who started it has no right to complain. As a matter of fact, the Governor says he is not complaining, but it is inferred from his Charlotte speech that he is not altogether satisfied because most of the State press has not been for him.

One criticism which the Governor made of the press was as to publishing campaign matter as advertising and failing to mark it as such. Newspapers really cannot afford to publish long, personal campaign documents and communications free of charge. It costs money to have them put into type and they rob the paper of space that could better be devoted to news. We have seen very few politicians but that would "sponge" on a newspaper and impose on publishers, and we have known some who got indignant when it became necessary in self-defense to choke them off.

We believe in a high standard for the press and if the Governor's criticism tends that way it is timely. Candidates, however, also ought to have some standard and be so conscientious as not to expect to impose their personal affairs on the press without sending a check to cover the expense and annoyance incurred by publishers. We have no doubt many newspapers publish communications and make legitimate charges for them when they would prefer not to have the matter at any price. While we are endeavoring to lift the press up to a higher standard, let us also expect of the candidates sufficient conscientiousness to pay the publisher the right price and not insist that his campaign thunder shall appear as regular matter without a dot, an ex, or an asterisk, or the signature of a responsible man. Of course, candidates would much prefer that their personal matter would appear without any advertising mark, but it is not altogether moral, not perfectly so at least, to induce the publisher to leave off the marker so that the public can be misled into believing that the support of the paper is behind the candidate.

The Star has always had a more or less rigid rule as to political communications which unnecessarily take up space, and it has always aimed to feed all out of the same spoon. If the rule has ever been violated it has been done as often for those to whom it was not committed as it has been done for those who may have had its favor. However, The Star has always endeavored to avoid taking sides in contests within the party, and when it has apparently done so it has been more in the interest of the party than it has been in behalf of the individual. The Star is not any man's "paper" and is as free to defend any candidate as another when his record is unfairly assailed or so attacked as to injure the party. We are even willing to strain a point when anything good can be said of any Democrat's record when it is creditable to the party. We have defended some but not attacked any, because we do not consider it good party judgment to say things which Republicans can quote against the party in a campaign. We have always ben cautious about writing a book for our enemy. If candidates would be equally as cautious the party would be all the stronger.

We have sometimes kept our foot off the loud pedal for the good of the party, but we regret to say that some politicians are not so careful of the party's good name and future when they can make capital for themselves by starting something.

BUSTED TRUSTS FLOURISHING

Some trusts have been "busted" by Roosevelt and Taft, and we will hear much about it during this campaign. No doubt statistics will be given about numerous suits and the activities of the Department of Justice under the direction of the two Republican Presidents who have made it their business to put the trusts out of business.

They have been doing things, of course, but they have never put anybody in jail for defying the laws of the Nation. Neither is a single trust missed from the list. In the meantime, however, trusts have been "busted" by Roosevelt and "dissolved" by Taft, but the absurdity and impotency of their pretensions have been demonstrated by the trusts themselves. The trusts have insolently gone on prospering instead of lying low until after the election. Speaking of two "busted" trusts the Chicago Tribune (Rep.) said in an editorial a few days ago:

"Standard Oil sold yesterday for $1,000 a share. When Standard Oil was 'dissolved' a few months ago it sold for $675. And yet the two old political parties in their platforms solemnly repeat their twenty-year-old pledges to bust the trusts.

"We hope the Bull Moose party, about to meet, will have the courage not to peddle out this same old buncombe of busting the trusts.

"In the first place, it isn't possible to bust the trusts, as should be fairly evident by now; in the second place, it isn't desirable, for the Nationwide tasks which they now perform would be done more slowly, clumsily, and wastefully by a return to the old method of small competing companies.

"The thing to do with the trusts is not to bust them but to harness them. Bring them under national, not State, control. Whatever their nominal homes, and their nominal home is usually New Jersey, they are national institutions, operating throughout the nation. They should, therefore, be supervised by national authorities. In this way the whole people will share in the benefits of the trust enterprises, and those benefits will no longer be reserved exclusively for trust stockholders."

The Republican Tribune is not quite fair when it belittles the trust-busting pledges which the two old parties in their platforms have solemnly repeated for the past twenty years. The Democratic party has never had an opportunity to carry out its pledges, because it has always been defeated by the Republican party on the plea that it would carry out its pledges and "ruin the financial interests of the country." The financiers have subscribed money to Republican campaign funds, and it was done with the full knowledge that no trust would be destroyed and no violator of the law would have stripes placed upon him by any Republican administration.

We know that no Republican administration will ever put a trust out of business or break up a monopoly, but give the Democratic party a trial and see if it will carry out its pledges. We don't know whether it would make good or not, but we suspect it would, for Big Business has invariably decided not to take any chance on it.

We have an idea that corporations with huge capital will never be put out of business in this country. They are necessary, but they should not be permitted to violate the law by crushing opposition by conipsracies and unfair methods. If that is what the so-called trusts propose to keep up, they will be destroyed either by being taken over by a socialistic government or rended by the anarchy which they are foctering by their methods.

The fact that the trust crowd still fears Democratic pledges and prays for more Republican success, ought to convince voters that the party most likely to give them relief is the one which the trusts refuse to trust.

TREES AND PLANTS THREATENED.

Complaint is coming from many sections of the South that tree and plant life is threatened by fungus growths and insects. The Augusta Chronicle says the shade and fruit trees of that city are threatened with immediate destruction. The following from our esteemed contemporary may enable Wilmington people to detect the appearance of the same pest in this city:

"The West India Scale is becoming a most serious menace to many of the trees and shrubs in Augusta. This scale is very easily recognized, as it gives the trees and plants the appearance of having been whitewashed. The mulberry, sycamore, varnish tree, peach and plum are particularly susceptible to the attacks of this insect. It is also making its appearance on the privet hedges and many varieties of ornamental shrubs. As this scale is spreading very rapidly, it is a question of only a short time when it will attack many other varieties of trees and plants. Only recently it made its appearance on the elm, sycamore and hackberry. And unless the city authorities and individuals of the city of Augusta take prompt and immediate action in fighting this scale, very serious injury will result, and in a short time the city will be most unsightly with dead and dying trees and shrubs. By waging an immediate and vigorous warfare many trees and shrubs, and an immense amount of money can be saved. The trees of the city are one of its most valuable assets, both from a financial and hygienic standpoint."

Judging from the fact that the West India scale gives leaves a whitish appearance, we are pretty well satisfied that it is doing considerable damage around Wilmington. We have noticed it on rosebushes and violets especially, but having had no occasion to observe other shrubbery or trees, we cannot speak as to them. It is almost impossible to get violets to grow in Oakdale cemetery. They flourish a while and then the leaves become white and soon the work of destruction is complete.

Something seems to be the matter with Wilmington's shade trees. The leaves look small and parched, as if they had been damaged by drought or cold. Many liveoak trees now look like they are about to drop their leaves, yet they ought to be green in midwinter, unless we have such a Winter as the one just past. It might pay our city authorities and citizens to make a close examination and report if they discover anything like the pest which is menacing trees and shrubbery in the Georgia city. Mr. P. J. Berckmans, the Georgia nurseryman, calls attention to the danger of scale ravages, and makes this recommendation:

"To check the ravages of this scale all of the badly infested trees should be at once cut down and burned, and all trees and shrubs not badly infested should be at once sprayed with the prepared lime and sulphur solution, using one part of the solution to 20 parts of water, or spray with kerosene emulsion, using one part of emulsion to five of water. The spray must be applied with plenty of force, and in the shape of a fine mist. Every portion of the tree or plant must be thoroughly covered, especially the base of the tree or plant, as the scale is usually abundant at this point; do not overspray, as injury may result. Repeat the spraying, and if it is thoroughly done every scale will be killed.

"The two above-mentioned insecticides will also kill the white fly, which is prevalent on cape jasmine and privet hedges. In cases where the West India peach scale is affecting the privet hedges, would recommend that the hedge be severely cut back, and all of the clippings raked up and burned, and the hedge given two or three sprayings at intervals of a week; using for this the lime and sulphur solution in the following proportions:

"One part of lime and sulphur solution to 20 parts of water; keep the mixture well agitated. This treatment will thoroughly eradicate the scale on privet hedges."

President Taft received many telegrams and letters congratulating him upon his speech accepting the Republican nomination for President. However, most all the 15,000,000 voters in this country have refrained from rushing congratulations to the President. He will hear from them November 5th.

President Taft will again have to pass on the same cotton tariff bill which he vetoed at the previous session of Congress. The Democratic House has on Thursday left the revised schedule just as it was and passed it by the big vote of 156 to 72. Thus one hundred and fifty-six of the country's able men put their judgment against that of one man in the White House. However, Taft never hesitates to put his judgment against the whole of Congress.

CURRENT COMMENT.

They are having a high old time in Wilmington over the prosecution of the blind tigers. One of this gentry was before the Superior Court the other day and declared that the policy of the prosecutors was to go after the little fellows and let the big ones go. Conditions are very much different there from what they are in other places if that criticism is not well justified. The well-to-do, hail fellow-well-met law breaker is the hardest of all to bring to time. But the Wilmington people who are disposed to put up a fight for the preservation of law and order say they will bring to justice the rich and powerful sinners as well as the humble ones and in that decision they should have the support and sympathy of the whole law-abiding element of the city. When the State voted prohibition it was known that it would be a big job to enforce the law in Wilmington. But it doesn't appear that they are disposed down there to lay down on the job—not a bit of it.—Newbern Journal.

Perhaps there was more in The Observer's suggestion for a campaign of publicity than appeared on the surface. Governor Kitchin has made an explanatory statement of his remarks about the bought up papers, which places him in a much better light. Senator Simmons thinks it probable that he has spent less money on newspaper advertising than has been spent by Governor Kitchin. Judge Clark was recently quoted as calling for an inexpensive campaign. Publicity as to the money back of these respective candidates for Senatorial honors might bring out some interesting revelations, if there is any foundation for the talk heard in Charlotte the past week. It was told as a rather surprising fact that Judge Clark is heavily financed, and it was intimated that a Kitchin organ that is covering some of the counties like snowflakes, must be costing the Governor something. At any rate, the talk in the air would seem to be sufficient to put a quietus on the subsidizing charges against Simmons. The Observer votes for a show down. Which of the three candidates is spending the most money, or stands to spend the most money, in the present campaign?—Charlotte Observer.

The Good Government League Endorses Work Done by The Court.

The Good Government League notes the splendid work of reform in this community, accomplished during the past two weeks, with profound satisfaction. It recognizes also the fact that but the first stage of permanent improvement in the enforcement of law and the establishment of good morals has been passed. It therefore pledges itself to a continuance of the work of detection and conviction of lawlessness in all of its forms, in co-operation with the police department, the local and Superior courts, and every other agency commissioned with the power and authority to bring about such results.

The Good Government League believes that it represents in a concentrated form the efficient expression of the will of all law-loving and law-abiding citizens, and calls upon them to aid it in every way within their power and opportunity in its work of reformation and regeneration; but chiefly, by an outspoken public expression of their disapproval and condemnation of all vice and crime, and by helping to bring to trial all who in the future are in any way engaged in lawless pursuits or who are aiding and abetting others in such pursuits.

The Good Government League endorses most heartily both the policy and methods of the fearless judge, who has made effective the efforts of the various forces of law and order in this community. It believes with him that "the law exists not to crush the individual but to prevent the commission of crime;" and it is prepared to welcome into the ranks of those who wish to see an impartial enforcement of law in this community those who have pledged their word henceforth to refrain from lawlessness. It is prepared to accept the determination of all such in good faith, and seeks their co-operation in the enforcement of law and the preservation of order.

The Good Government League is thoroughly of the conviction that those who are not ashamed or afraid to encourage and patronize blind tigers, gambling houses, houses of ill-fame and like resorts of vice and crime, should not complain when the law requires them to appear against the keepers of such places as witnesses nor if their names are blazoned in the public pres, along with the names of the criminals whom they have patronized. If forewarned is forearmed, sufficient has been said.

The Good Government League is of the further conviction that the only way to reach the social evil effectively by the law is through those who rent to those who are under suspicion of maintaining nuisances. Such method of prosecuting the evil through the owners of the houses has been and is being most successfully applied in Baltimore. It is probably often true that owners rent innocently; and if they do, they have their redress in the shape of a bill of ejectment promptly executed. But if, after due warning from the police department that their houses are under suspicion, they fail to take such action, then the responsibility is on them and they should be indicted at once. The Good Government League especially desires to offer its enthusiastic commendation of the work of the local authorities—the assistant city attorney, the commissioner of public safety and the police department in general, both before and during the present term of court; and also to express its appreciation of the no less splendid work of their associates in the Superior Court of this term.

The Good Government League feels that this community owes a debt of gratitude to the grand jury, for the fearless, impartial and untiring service which they have given the community in the discharge of their duties.

Lastly, believing that only through untiring vigilance and self-effacing devotion can the highest ends of the law be reached and maintained, the Good Government League urges upon every citizen the duty that every man owes to his community—a fair amount of public service for the public welfare, a voice unsparingly against vice and crime in every form, an example that is free from suspicion of the patronage or encouragement of lawless pursuits, and a sympathetic co-operation with the authorities of the law. It is only so that what has been begun in the interest of reform will be continued until the fair name of their city is wholly redeemed from the blots and stains which have accumulated upon it, largely through their indifference in the past.

GOOD GOVERNMENT LEAGUE.

MAY NOT BUY INCINERATOR

However, Councilman B. C. Moore Is Instructed to Visit Plants In Other Cities—Meeting Held Yesterday

Carrying out the instructions of the City Council as contained in a resolution adopted with but one dissenting vote at a special meeting yesterday at noon, Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, left last night for a visit to Portsmouth, Norfolk and Richmond and possibly other cities, where he will inspect municipal incinerators so as to be able to recommend to the body which of the several types should be purchased for this city and county. Mr. Moore will probably visit Philadelphia before returning and will be away most of the week, if not longer.

At the special meeting yesterday Mayor Smith presided with all members present; also in attendance were County Commissioners Divine and Metts, who had been asked to be present; Col. H. C. White, acting city clerk and treasurer; City Attorney Herbert McClammy and Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, county superintendent of public instruction. Some weeks ago, at a conference, the Council and Board of County Commissioners agreed to purchase an incinerator of about 25-ton capacity, the city to pay 80 per cent of the cost and the county 20 per cent. It was generally thought that there was no opposition to the purchase and installation of the plant. However, yesterday morning Councilman P. Q. Moore stated that he was opposed to the purchase of the plant on the ground that the city did not have the money. He therefore, declined to vote for the resolution instructing Councilman B. C. Moore to visit plants in other cities. When Councilman P. Q. Moore entered his objection it was brought out that Councilman Tiencken also does not look with particular favor upon the proposition on account of the lack of funds. While he did not express himself, it is probable that Mayor Smith is opposed to the plan on the same ground. Councilman P. Q. Moore went on record as being out and out against the proposition, so if Mayor Smith and Councilman Tiencken should vote with him then an incinerator will not be purchased, for the three compose the majority of the Council.

On Mayor Smith's desk yesterday was a communication from Dr. W. D. MacMillan, county superintendent of health, to Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, notifying the latter that the resolution of the County Board of Health with regard to burying or placing upon the surface refuse, carrion, etc., will be carried out to the letter unless the installation of an incinerator has been begun by October 1st, 1912. The resolution provides that on and after that date, no refuse, carrion, etc., shall be deposited on or beneath the soil in New Hanover county. October 1st was fixed as the date in order to allow the authorities to install an incinerator. According to the letter from the county superintendent of health if the resolution is not obeyed or some disposition to obey is shown those responsible will be indicted.

Acting upon the instruction of Council and agreed to by the County Commissioners, Councilman B. C. Moore inserted an advertisement in the newspapers calling for bids for an incinerator. These bids were opened Saturday at noon. There were only two bidders and three bids. Both were for 40-ton plants. One was from the Decaire Company, which makes the water-jacketed incinerator, offered at $40,000, and the other two were from the Dixon Engineering & Construction Co. One bid of the Dixon was designated as "Bid 1610" and the other as "Bid 1611." The first is offered at $18,500 and the second for $15,000. Both companies, it is thought, would arrange terms to suit the purchasers, so that only a small amount would be required when the plant was installed.

The bids were referred to Councilman B. C. Moore and Engineer F. F. Pillett and at the meeting yesterday the former stated that with Dr. Nesbitt they had gone over the bids very carefully, noting the features of the different incinerators, and that they were still of the opinion that the Decaire system is the best and would give more satisfaction. He pointed out that with the brick-lined furnace, which the Dixon company would furnish, would be out of commission at least one-tenth of the year in order to be re-lined. Besides it was thought that the cost of maintenance of the water-jacketed furnace, as made by the Decaire company, would be less. However, Councilman B. C. Moore said that he was not yet in position to make a report on the matter until he had personally visited and inspected plants in operation in other cities. Members of the Board of County Commissioners present said that inasmuch as the county was to pay only a small portion of the cost that they thought it should be left largely to the Council as to what type of plant should be installed, the only thing with them being a limit of price, which they thought ought to be around $25,000 or $30,000. Councilman B. C. Moore thought that a 25 or 30-ton capacity plant could be purchased for this amount. After some little more discussion the resolution, as outlined, was adopted with Councilman P. Q. Moore voting in the negative. Council then adjourned.

It will be recalled that Councilman P. Q. Moore and Councilman B. C. Moore had some rather heated words in Council meeting last week over the street improvement fund and the former warned the latter never to speak to him again outside of Council hall, or he would have to take the consequences. There seemed to be no disposition on the part of either to speak to each other at the meeting ysterday and neither said anything to the other.

LONG SESSION YESTERDAY

Busy Day in the Recorder's Court and Charges Were Many and Varied. Several Whiskey Cases Disposed of—Other Matters.

Yesterday's session of the Recorder's court rather resembled a sitting of Superior Court, judging from the nature of the offenses tried, the manner in which they were handled and the time consumed in the hearing of the many different matters. The docket was a wide and varied one, the defendants being charged with crimes ranging from drunkenness to intimidating witnesses and violating the prohibition law. It was impossible to handle all of the cases and a number were continued, though these were for the most part not important ones.

The features, or at least the more prominent ones, of the session were the cases charging violations of the prohibition law. Ellen Jones, a typical black mammy, and her son, James Jones, were both found guilty. In Ellen's case prayer for judgment was continued upon payment of the costs and that she give bond in the sum of $200 not to allow the entrance of her restaurant to be used by customers frequenting an alleged blind tiger adjoining. Prayer for judgment in her son's case was continued upon his paying the costs and giving bond of $200 for his appearance each first Monday for 12 months to show that he has been on his good behavior and that he has not directly or indirectly engaged in the sale of whiskey.

Detective E. C. Warren was the chief witness against the old woman and her son. He said that he stood near the entrance of her restaurant on Water street, near Red Cross, Sunday and watched her son, James Jones, sell a negro a half-pint bottle of liquid resembling whiskey. He did not know how much money was exchanged, but thought that it was 35 cents, as one coin appeared to be a quarter and the other a dime. He did not see Ellen in the store at the time.

Several police officers testified as to the general reputation of the place, and of having often seen white and colored persons frequenting the locality, apparently under the influence of whiskey. After hearing the evidence the Recorder held that both were guilty, but on account of the rather weak evidence of the State, did not impose a fine, being content to continue the prayer for judgment and require bond to insure that the business will be broken up.

J. R. Kennedy, proprietor of the Princess Cafe, who entered a plea of guilty in Superior Court last week to a charge of violating the prohibition law and upon whom prayer for judgment was continued upon his furnishing $500 bond for his appearance at each term for two years to show cause that he has not engaged in the selling of intoxicants, entered a plea of guilty in the Recorder's court yesterday, and prayer for judgment was continued upon payment of costs with the provision that the case may be called at any time if it is suggested to the court that he is not keeping his agreement with the Superior Court.

Gust Kondiles, Dick Lassiter and J. C. Balsom, three of Kennedy's clerks who were arrested on the same day that Kennedy gave himself up to the officers, on similar charges, all entered pleas of guilty. Prayer for judgment was continued upon payment of costs and the filing of $200 bond each for their appearance each first Monday for 12 months. However, when it was intimated to the court that the men wanted to leave North Carolina they were given until this morning to arrange their bonds and he released, in order to give them an opportunity to leave. If they are in the city this morning capiases are to be issued.

A case charging J. D. Ship, white, with a violation of the prohibition law, was continued by consent to September 23rd, with the provision that the case may be called at any time if it is suggested to the court that the defendant is not keeping his agreement entered into under bond when he submitted a plea of guilty in Superior Court last week to a similar charge. Similar disposition was made of the case against S. H. Mintz, charged also with a violation of the prohibition law. Alonzo Brown, colored, was tried on a charge of selling two quarts of whiskey to one William Brown, colored, for the sum of $2. The case was left open for further consideration.

Hoyt Kennedy, white, was found not guilty on a charge of violating the prohibition law. Only one witness was introduced by each side. Lonnie Pershake, white, testified that he and Johnnie Roderick and several other young men purchased six bottles of beer and three half pints of whiskey from Kennedy one Saturday night several weeks ago. Johnnie Roderick went on the stand for the defense and denied that the boys had bought any whiskey from Kennedy on the night mentioned by Pershake and to the best of his knowledge at any other time. He said that people said of Lonnie that he was a "big ole liar."

A case against W. B. Street, white, charged with violating the prohibition law, was continued until this morning. Bond of $200 was required. A nol pros with leave was taken in a similar case against Marsden Sellers, white, charged with a like offense. The State lacked sufficient evidence to go to trial. Another whiskey case, against R. J. Armstrong, white, was continued until this morning.

Joe Goldberg, J. K. Smith, H. Finberg, J. W. Guthrie and J. R. Davis, who were among the number arrested when the police raided several alleged gambling dens several weeks ago, and whose cases were continued until yesterday, entered pleas of guilty to charges of gambling and prayer for judgment was continued to September 3rd, upon payment of costs and the defendants' giving bond of $50 each for their appearance from time to time to show that they have been on their good behavior and have not engaged in gambling.

C. R. Fowler, another of the defendants, was tried and found guilty on a similar charge, and the same disposition was made of his case. Fred Harrelson and R. A. Jones were found not guilty of gambling and cases against J. F. Zellers, white, and James Everett, colored, the latter porter at one of the clubs raided, were nol prossed.

Bob Hansley, John Tharp and Gene Harriss, white, were found not guilty on a charge of intimidating a witness. The prosecuting witness tangled himself up so badly on cross-examination that it was difficult to comprehend how he managed to remember his own name. He swore that Marsden Sellers kept a store on Eighth street, between Church and Castle, when the defense established the fact that Seller's store is on Seventh street.

Eugene McMillan, Joe Jones and Bertram LeVane, colored boys, were found guilty of disorderly conduct and were sentenced to 30 days each on the county farm. James McIntyre, colored, was convicted of carrying a concealed weapon and was fined $25 and costs. Porter Finckley, colored, was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct and judgment was suspended on payment of costs for an assault on a female, his wife. The court warned him if he came up again on the latter charge he would go to the roads.

Lina Womack, colored, charged with larceny, was found not guilty. J. D. Garrison, white, was taxed $5 and costs for being drunk and disorderly.

Lucy Reaves, colored, was charged with disorderly conduct, but as there seemed to be some question as to her sanity she was sent to the Clerk of the Superior Court for an investigation. Connie Larkins and Maud Lane, two colored damsels, were found guilty of an affray. Connie was taxed $5 and half the costs, while Maud was let off on payment of the other half of the costs. Judgment was suspended on payment of the costs upon Jas. H. Loftin, colored, charged with violating the driving ordinance. Two drunks contributed $5 and costs each and one was called and failed. His bond was forfeited.

MEETINGS WELL ATTENDED.

Searchlight Chautauqua Attracts Large Crowds—Programme.

(Contributed.)

The present accommodation at the Searchlight Chautauqua camp, which is located on Sixth street, near Red Cross, it too inadequate to supply present demands. Sunday night 1,500 were present and stood up during the entire service, regardless of the tempestuous weather. It is reported that Sydney Scott, the minister in charge, will begin a large campaign in Charlotte as soon as his work is finished in this city.

Saturday night Dr. Charles W. Stiles gave a lecture under canvas to about 500 persons with moderate sprinkling of white people, who occupied reserve seats. There were nearly 150 different views thrown upon the canvas which attracted and held the attention to the close. Dr. Stiles made some striking remarks about sanitation which struck to the heart of the audience. He said that "the negro traded the hookworm disease to the white race, and the Anglo-Saxon, in return, gave the Afro-American tuberculosis." He advised better accommodation in the homes and around the premises to insure good health. The doctrine of "soap and water" was given by the doctor as a valuable asset to any home, neighborhood, and to the country at large. What the doctor said about flies, has inspired many who were at the meeting to screen the living apartments and the accommodation houses so that the flies' mission in scattering disease may be intercepted to the good of all.

The minister informed the public that the great Sabbath question will be explained Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday night. A large attendance is expected to hear this perplexing subject. The hour of service has been changed to 8 o'clock so as to end promptly. The public is invited to all meeting every evening at 9 o'clock the services Reserved seats for white people who desire to attend during the special services this week.

RURAL SCHOOLS OPEN SOON

Big Meeting of the Committeemen to Be Held on the 17th

Prof. Washington Catlett, county superintendent of public instruction, announced yesterday that he had called a meeting of the district school committeemen of the county to be held in the Court House Saturday morning, August 17th, at which time matters in general pertaining to education and the schools will be discussed. It has been a custom of Prof. Catlett for several years to hold these meetings and he is satisfied that it results in much benefit to all. He wrote a letter yesterday morning to Dr. J. Y. Joyner, State superintendent of public instruction, asking him to be present and address the committeemen.

The rural schools of the county will open the first Monday in September, less than a month off, and indications are for a banner enrollement in every district. The superintendent and members of the Board of Education have spent some time recently in directing repairs to buildings and otherwise getting everything in readiness for the Fall term.

THE GEN. GETTY HERE

Army Transport Returns From Cruise In Northern Waters

The steamer General G. W. Getty, in command of Capt. Crockett, arrived at Fort Caswell Sunday afternoon, returning from a cruise in the New London, Conn., district, where she has been engaged for some time towing targets for practice of several companies of the Coast Artillery. The steamer returned by way of New York and came up to Wilmington Sunday night.

Yesterday morning the Getty carried down the Newbern and Wilmington companies Coast Artillery to Fort Caswell and will assist in the target practice there during the present week.

The Getty will now take up her regular station at this port, where the majority of the crew live and have their families.

ARTILLERYMEN TO THE FORT

Military Boys In the City Yesterday On Their Way to Caswell for The Annual Encampment—Talk of Election

The annual encampment of the Coast Artillery Corps, North Carolina National Guard, began at Fort Caswell yesterday. The artillerymen arrived in Wilmington during the day and went down to the fort on the steamers Ella and Gen. G. W. Getty. Six companies compose the corps, these being Charlotte, Salisbury, Greensboro, Henderson, Newbern and Wilmington. They will be in camp until the morning of the 15th, when they will start on the homeward journey.

The Salisbury and Henderson companies went down early yesterday morning on the steamer Ella and the same boat carried the Charlotte and Newbern companies in the afternoon. The Wilmington Light Infantry and the Guilford Greys, of Greensboro, went down on the Gen. G. W. Getty, leaving here about 11 o'clock.

Lieut.-Col. Max L. Barker, of Salisbury, is in command of the battalion. He was recently promoted to this rank from major, leaving a vacancy in the office formerly held by him. It is the purpose of the boys to hold an election during the encampment to name a major and Capt. E. D. Kuyken of Greensboro, is being prominently mentioned for the office. Capt. Kuykendal,a prominent young lawyer of Greensboro, is commander of the Grensboro company and has been for a number of years. He has a number of friends among the guard in Wilmington, who will give him their support. Mentioned also for the office are Capt. E. A. Metts, of the W. L. I.; Capt. Dodameade, of High Point, and Capt. Cox, of Salisbury. Members of the W. L. I., while they would like to have Capt. Metts for the office, are of the opinion that Capt. Kuykendal will be the choice of the corps.

The following from yesterday's Greensboro News relative to the encampment will be of interest:

"Keen in anticipation of the instructions and pleasures to be derived from a two weeks camp at Fort Caswell, the Guilford Greys boarded a special troop train at 11 o'clock last night bound for the principal point of defense along the Carolina coast. The local company went 53 strong, while a number almost similar from the Hendersonville and Salisbury companies were passengers on the special. The Charlotte and Newbern companies went on a Seaboard and Coast Line train, joining the Wilmington company, the six joining forces today in the artillery maneuvers to be worked out during the period of the encampment. These companies form the coast artillery corps of the State, being a part of the North Carolina National Guard.

"The local company was headed by Capt. E. D. Kuykendal, whom his followers hope will return to Greensboro in the rank of major. The Guilford Greys, with the other five companies, have been asigned to practice work on the 12-inch guns of the mortar type which have recently been installed at Fort Caswell. These guns are the latest constructed designed for destruction, ranging upward and being reputed to be effective to a marked degree. The boys feel that they are especially fortunately in that Capt. E. L. Gilmer, a former Greensboro boy now in the regular service, has been assigned as their instructor.

"The camp will be pitched tomorrow and stakes will not be pulled until the 15th. The day routine consists of regular army life tactics, dress parade, defense instructions and gun practice. The itinerary for each day has been arranged with especial view to giving time for fishing and other water sports. It is to be more than a camp of drudgery, though the boys will at all times be under the discipline which goes to make soldier life.

"There is a strong belief among officers and privates of the artillery corps that the office of major will be created during the present encampment and the local boys feel confident that their own captain, E. D. Kuykendal, will be selected for this important post. His jurisdiction would extend over the entire volunteer corps of coast artillery. Others who have been mentioned for the place in the event it is made are: Captain Metts, of Wilmington; Captain Dodameade, of High Point, and Captain Cox, of Salisbury."

MRS. RUBEN OUTLAW DEAD

Passed Away at Her Home In Brunswick County Sunday Night

Friends in this city and section regretted very much to learn yesterday morning of the death of Mrs. Ruben Outlaw, which occurred Sunday night shortly after 11 o'clock at her home in the Town Creek section, Brunswick county. She had been in poor health for some time, but the end came rather suddenly.

Mrs. Outlaw was about 44 years of age and is survived by her husband and seven children, also by three brothers, Mr. Jesse Reynolds, of Jennix; Mr. Isaac Reynolds, of Columbus county, and Mr. Mack Reynolds, of Georgia; also by two sisters. All of these will have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

The deceased was a faithful wife and loving mother. She was a devoted Christian, and a consistent member of the Lebanon Baptist church.

The funeral will be held from Lebanon church this morning at 8 o'clock. Rev. D. R. Hickman will conduct the services and interment will be made in the churchyard burying ground.

Married Here Sunday.

Mr. John W. Smith and Miss Maggie Yarboro, both of Fayetteville, were happily united in marriage at the home of a relative in this city Sunday at noon, Justice G. W. Bornemann performing the ceremony in his usual impressive manner. There were present a number of friends and relatives. The couple left immediately for Lumina, where they spent the afternoon, returning to Fayetteville in the evening. Mr. Smith secured license in Fayetteville, but papers issued in that county could not be used in New Hanover, so the groom had to obtain papers from the Register of Deeds here.

SHE ENDORSED IT

"I want this check cashed," said the fair young bride.

"Yes, madam," said the paying teller, "but please endorse it."

"Endorse it; what's that? It's from my husband."

"Yes, madam—just sign your name on the back, so he will know we paid you the money."

And this is what she signed: "Your loving wife, Louise."

Report As to Ptomaine Poisoning at Hospital Said to Be Exaggerated

A report was in circulation yesterday to the effect that a large part of the nursing staff, a number of the internes and several patients at the James Walker Memorial Hospital had suffered from ptomaine poisoning Saturday night and had been made seriously ill, but inquiry of Dr. J. W. Hooper, the surgeon in charge, last night, brought the statement that the report had been considerably exaggerated.

Dr. Hooper stated that three or four nurses and several internes had complained of indigestion Saturday night, and that he thought it had been brought on by something they had eaten. He stated that none of them were seriously sick at the time and that all were fully recovered and back on duty yesterday.

D. B. Prager Neglected to Settle When He Left the Seashore.

A young man who registered at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, as D. B. Prager, leaving a few days ago with an unpaid board bill of $46.75, was thought Saturday to have been located and arrested at Wilson, but a message Sunday from the chief of police of that town was to the effect that the wrong man had been under surveilance by the police. The young man cut quite a wide swath while at the resort and made friends among some of the leading young folks of the city and beach, and they were greatly surprised when they learned that he had left without settling up his board bill. He was at the hotel for about three weeks and paid his first week's board. He wrote Capt. Edgar L. Hinton, manager of the hotel, a note a few days ago saying that he had had some trouble in getting a check forwarded and that he intended to go to Roanoke to investigate. He left in his room as baggage only a white canvas hat, several bottles and a few worthless papers. Capt. Hinton has received a letter from the Ebbetts House, Washington, D. C., stating that the same person owed the hotel there $77 board bill, that a warrant had been issued for him and would be served if he returned to the District of Columbia.

CONVICTS BROUGHT TO JAIL

Committee of Physicians Say Conditions at Camp Even Worse Than Grand Jury Reported Investigates

Informed by a committee of physicians, who had made an investigation, that conditions at the Federal Point road convict camp were even worse than described by the grand jury in its report last week, Judge Frank Carter, of Asheville, who presided at the term of court, Sunday morning instructed the Clerk of Superior Court to issue an instanter order to the Sheriff to remove the convicts, 23 in number, from the cage at the camp to the county jail to remain there until the conditions complained of have been remedied by the County Commissioners, as may be required by a special committee appointed to represent the court.

Carrying out the mandate of the court Sheriff Cowan, accompanied by several deputies went to the camp and brought the convicts to the county jail. Judge Carter appointed a committee Saturday to represent the court in the matter and this committee visited the camp yesterday afternoon and made an inspection. All the convict camps in the county were visited. Mr. J. Allan Taylor is chairman of the committee and the other two members are Dr. R. Harllee Bellamy and Dr. John Thames. Mr. Taylor said last night that he would not give out for publication any statement in advance of the filing of the report and recommendations with the County Commissioners, which will be done promptly, certainly within the next few days.

The formal order of Judge Carter as prepared by him Saturday and transmitted to the Sheriff Sunday with the order of the Clerk of Superior Court, follows:

"State of North Carolina, County of New Hanover, in Superior Court, July Term, 1912.

"It appearing to the court by the report of the grand jury of New Hanover county, that the accommodations provided for the convicts now at work on what is known as the Carolina Beach road are inadequate to such a degree that said convicts cannot be humanely kept at said place, and upon such report the court finding the facts so to be;

"It is ordered by the court that the said convicts be removed from said location to the common jail of said county, or to the county farm or other place of lawful imprisonment, where they can be humanely kept until such time as the Board of Commissioners of New Hanover county may provide adequate facilities for the keeping of said convicts in said first named place.

"And it is further ordered by the court that the said convicts be not returned to said location until the facilities provided in said location are passed upon and approved by the following named committee, or a majority of them, towit: Mr. J. A. Taylor, Dr. R. Harllee Bellamy and Dr. John Thames.

"It is further ordered by the court that the said committee make a thorough investigation of all the conditions of living at the convict camp and at the several locations in said county where convicts are worked, including the sanitation of such places, the dietary and sleeping arrangements of said convicts, and all other matters pertinent to the inquiry aforesaid, and make report of their conclusions to the next term of this court; such report, when complete to be placed on file, in duplicate, in the office of the Clerk of this court and with the clerk of the Board of County Commissioners of said county, for public inspection.

"It is further ordered that the said committee be provided with transportation to and from the places aforesaid and that all their expenses necessary to be incurred by them in the investigation aforesaid, be paid by the Commissioners of said county.

"FRANK CARTER,
"Judge Presiding.

"This 3rd day of August, 1912."

Sunday morning Judge Carter, who was spending the day with Sheriff Cowan at his home on Grenville Sound, received a telephone message from Dr. R. Harllee Bellamy, a member of the County Board of Health, and also a member of the court's committee, to the effect that five physicians had visited the camp and were not only able to corroborate the statements contained in the grand jury's report, but would say that conditions were even worse. Dr. Bellamy told Judge Carter that the physicians recommended that the convicts be removed immediately to the county jail.

Maj. W. N. Harriss, Clerk of Superior Court, was called by telephone and instructed by Judge Carter to issue the order for the removal of the prisoners. Sheriff Cowan came on to the city and after receiving the order summoned several deputies, secured a big wagon from a livery stable and started for the camp. Those in party besides Sheriff Cowan were Deputy Sheriffs A. L. Kelly, John H. Davis and Joe Bryan and Justice George Harriss, W. H. Howe and Melvin Horne, who were sworn in as special deputies. They found 22 men in the cage and one on the outside. One of those in the party commented upon the filthiness of the cage and remarked that it was strange to him that some disease or pestilence had not broken out among the convicts by reason of the unsanitary conditions.

The convicts will be cared for in the county jail until the court's committee makes its report and the Commissioners have complied with the requirements of the committee in improving the conditions.

MEETING OF COMMISSIONERS

Tax Levy for 1912 Made—Free Site For Tuberculosis Sanitarium—To Improve Conditions at Road Convict Camp

In regular monthly session yesterday afternoon the Board of County Commissioners made the tax levy for 1912, at an increase of 6 cents on the $100 valuation and 18 cents on the poll over last year; adopted a resolution authorizing the gift of a tract of six or more acres of land of the county farm to the Wilmington Red Cross Sanitarium to be used as a site for a tuberculosis hospital, and discussed at some length and decided to take immediate steps to remedy conditions at the Federal Point road convict camp, of which complaint was made by the grand jury and from which Judge Carter, in Superior Court, ordered the prisoners removed pending the betterment of conditions. The board also transacted considerable other business.

The meeting was a lengthy one, being called to order at 3 o'clock and ending at 6:10. All members were present, as follows: Chairman D. McEachern, and Commissioners Divine, Metts, Vollers and Kerr; also Deputy Register of Deeds Henry Horne, who acted as clerk.

The increase in the tax rate is a special bridge tax of six cents on the $100 and 18 cents on the poll, as authorized by Chapter 550 of the public laws of 1907, and is for the purpose of constructing a bridge over the Northeast river, between Pender and New Hanover counties, the expense of which is to be borne jointly by the two counties, on a basis of the number of registered polls. The contract for the bridge has been let to the Virginia Bridge & Iron Company, of Roanoke, Va.

All other items in the tax levy remain the same as last year. This makes a total rate of $1 on the $100 and $3 poll for State and county taxes. A tabulated statement of the tax rate is as follows:

Tabulated Tax Statesment

County Taxes	On the $100.	Poll.
General Fund	.21 2-3	.55
Hospital Fund	.06	.18
Road Sinking Fund..	.06 1-3	.19
Special School Tax..	.15	.45
Special Bridge Tax..	.06	.18
	.55	$1.65
State Tax	.45	$1.35
Total $1.00		$3.00

City Councilman W. E. Perdew appeared before the Board, representing the Wilmington Red Cross Sanitarium, to ask that the Commissioners convey to the institution a tract of about six acres of the county farm property on the Acorn Branch road, as a site for the tuberculosis sanitarium which is to be erected. He told of the objections to the location which had been given for the purpose in the city, and pointed out that the location on the county farm would be even more acceptable from all viewpoints than a site in the city.

Chairman McEachern stated that Rev. Thos. P. Noe had approached him in regard to the matter and that he had gone out with Mr. Noe and Capt. Walter G. MacRae and looked over the site. It was located on the north side of the Acorn Branch road, he said, and it seemed to be an ideal one in every particular, being located in a grove of long leaf pine, high and well drained, and sufficiently removed from any homes or other county institutions to eliminate any complaint that would arise in a more thickly populated section, and at the same time was easily accessible by macadam road, or by rail. It was large enough to have a chicken yard, cow lot and vegetable garden in connection with the building, and also would leave plenty of room for any of the inmates who might desire to sleep out of doors, in tents. The sanitarium, he noted, was to be a city and county institution, and it seemed to him that the Board could very well afford to give the land for such a purpose. For his part, he declared, he was heartily in favor of granting the petition.

Commissioner Divine then moved that the request be granted. The motion was carried and another was also adopted instructing the county attorney to prepare a deed transferring the property to the sanitarium, and that the chairman and clerk be instructed to sign the same when properly executed.

Councilman Perdew and Mrs. Cuthbert Martin, president of Wilmington Chapter of the Red Cross Society, thanked the board very heartily for its prompt and generous action on the matter. Mrs. W. L. Parsley also thanked the mebers of the Board. Capt. Walter G. MacRae, who was present, kindly offered to lay off the property for the Red Cross Society. It is presumed that the lot in the city, purchased as a site for the sanitarium, will be sold and the money applied to the building fund.

The discussion of the Federal Point road convict camp matter was precipitated when Dr. W. D. MacMillan submitted his monthly report, stating that all of the county institutions were in good condition. He laughingly remarked that this seemed strange in the face of the recommendations made by the grand jury in regard to the camp on the Federal Point road, but that he had reason to believe that it was in as good condition as the average convict camp in this or other States. Dr. MacMillan noted that the prisoners had been removed from the camp by the sheriff in compliance with the order of Judge Carter, and had been confined in the county jail. He said that all of the 23 convicts had been placed in the cage in the jail, along with several other prisoners, and that he believed this to be far more detrimental to their health than when they were confined in the cage at the camp, where they have the benefits of good ventilation and plenty of sunshine.

Commissioner Divine inquired as to why the convicts had been placed in the jail when the Judge's order had specified the jail, the county farm or some other place where they might be kept humanely until such a time when the committee appointed by Judge Carter shall decide that conditions at the camp are improved. Mr. Divine stated that it seemed to him that it would be more humane to put the prisoners in the general convict camp, or on the county farm.

Chairman McEachern was of the opinion that as Judge Carter had not ordered a copy of his order to be served on the board, and that as he had delegated to the committee appointed the powers which the constitution gives to the Commissioners, the Board could take no official action on the matter, but that he felt that it was the duty of the body to take such measures as were necessary to put the camp in proper condition. He pointed out that work on the Federal Point road had been halted by the removal of the prisoners, and that the county was losing money each day the prisoners remained in jail, and that it would be very expensive to move the working force from the main camp to where the work is going on each morning, and back each evening.

Mr. Divine declared that it seemed to him that too many prisoners had been confined in the cage, and that it was not right to leave them in the cage on Sundays, or to feed them in the cage. He understood that the cage was made for 24 men, but that it was only for sleeping purposes and not as a place for confinement. He was advised that the cage had originally had bunks for 24 prisoners, but that these had been in the way when prisoners were being fed in the cage, or confined there during the day, and that most of them had been removed. He said that these conditions were evidently the fault of the persons in charge of the camp, and that had members of the Board known that they existed they would have been glad to correct them.

Chairman D. McEachern suggested that the camp be moved to a sand hill on the old Horne place on the road, which he thought could be procured for the purpose, and where several old stables could be secured for the teams. It was decided to take this step immediately and to issue orders to the foreman of the camp that the bunks were to be replaced in the cage, which is to be used only for sleeping purposes. The men are not to be fed in the cage, and they are to be brought into the main camp Saturday evenings, and allowed to spend Sunday there. It was also decided to investigate and if the men do not have enough clothing to provide changes when needed to supply more. A shed will be constructed where they can have their meals.

Chairman McEachern said that he would have the cage moved today, and the other arrangements made immediately also, in order that the camp may be declared in proper condition as soon as possible.

Chairman McEachern brought up the matter of the joint purchase by the city and county of an incinerator for disposing of refuse, carrion, etc., and stated that the board would be glad to hear from the committee appointed by him informally to meet with a like committee from the City Council. Commissioner Divine, who with Commissioner Metts, composes this committee, reported that at the joint meeting it had been tentatively agreed upon that one-fifth of the total cost of the incinerator would be a proper share for the county. It was moved that the action of the chairman in appointing the committee be approved and that the action of the committee in regard to the share of the expense to be borne by the county be confirmed. The motion prevailed.

The road and bridge committee was instructed to have the Federal Point road strawed from a point at the old Horne place to four miles below there. The road committee reported that it desired further time to consider the matter of opening the Summer Rest road. The requested time was granted.

Commissioner Metts called attention to the uneven assessments on a number of lots owned by Mr. E. L. Prince, on Mercer avenue. Mr. Metts was appointed to confer with Assessor Thos. F. Bagley and to adjust the valuations. On recommendation of Messrs. H. F. Wilder and Walker Taylor, assistant assessors, it was decided to reduce the assessments on parts of lots 4 and 5 in Block 142 in order to give uniform assessments in the block.

A letter was received from the Fidelity Investment & Development Company, stating that their development at Sunset Park would require approximately 50 car loads of material, and asking permission to be allowed to install a spur track from the county railroad along the Federal Point thoroughfare, to the development, using the county rails. The letter stated that the hauling would be done only at such times as would not interfere with the work on the county road. It was the sense of the board that the development was to be an important one and all members were disposed to grant it, provided the company would agree to bear any expenses which the county might be subject to by reason of the arrangement, and the matter was referred to the road committee with power to act.

Louis J. Poisson, Esq., appeared before the board in behalf of Luther Bellamy, a small colored boy, who was sentenced in the Recorder's court recently to six months on the county farm for an assault with a deadly weapon, with permission to the Commissioners to hire out. The board voted to hire the boy out to his mother or some other responsible person for $25 and costs.

On recommendation of Maj. W. N. Harriss, Clerk of the Superior Court, the board decided to allow Geo. Weston, a young negro boy upon whom judgment was suspended in Superior Court last week on a charge of storebreaking upon payment of the cocts and condition that he report once a week for two years to the Clerk of the Superior Court, to work out his costs around the Court House and jail. The boy has been in jail for some time and he owes a considerable amount in jail fees, etc.

The county attorney handed in a check for $277.37 for back taxes collected during the past month. Register of Deeds John Haar reported 28 marriage licenses for the month of July, 15 for white and 13 for colored couples.

Mrs. Mary Rowan, of Delgado, was placed on the outdoor poor list at $2 a month and Rosa Spellman, of Harnett township, was also placed on the list for a like amount until her case can be investigated by the county physician. She is said to be helpless on account of old age and blindness.

—Deputy Sheriff Jno. H. Davis leaves this morning to take Gayhart Foy, colored, to the State penitentiary to begin serving the 16-year sentence imposed on him in Superior Court at the term just ended for the murder of Willie Gause.

A New Principle in Complexion Treatment

(From Society World.)

Most creams are injurious when used habitually. They clog the pores and eventually form a permanent soggy, stifling film which interferes with eliminative action and makes the skin sickly and pasty. There is an application—mercolized wax—which acts acts upon an entirely different principle. While perfectly harmless, it contains active ingredients which remove by absorption the dead and half-dead particles of scarf skin, as well as unhealthy matter in the pores. Thus it takes away from instead of adding to the cosmetics. The result is a perfectly natural and healthy young complexion. Mercolized wax, procurable at any drug store (one ounce is sufficient), is applied at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning.

The correct principle in the treatment of wrinkles is to tighten the skin, which naturally irons out the lines. A face bath, remarkably effective in this direction, may be made by dissolving 1 ounce powdered saxolite in 1-2 pint witch hazel.

WISCONSIN WOMAN'S FORTUNE

Freed From Pain, Weakness, Terrible Backache and Despair by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Coloma, Wis.—"For three years I was troubled with female weakness, irregularities, backache and bearing down pains. I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking several bottles I found it was helping me, and I must say that I am perfectly well now and cannot thank you enough for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. JOHN WENTLAND, R.F.D., No. 3, Box 60, Coloma, Wis.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

There are probably hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over 30 years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering. If you are sick and need such a medicine, why don't you try it?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

COTTON MARKET LESS ACTIVE

Fluctuations Were Irregular Within a Range of 10 to 18 Points—Close Was Steady and Almost Unchanged

New York, Aug. 5.—The cotton market was much less active today and fluctuated irregularly within a range of 10 to 18 points. The close was steady, net one point lower to five points higher. The market opened steady, at a decline of 7 points to an advance of four points net higher on active months, as a result of covering and support from trade sources, which was supposed to be inspired by the forecast for clearing weather and apprehensions that Texas' rainfall had not been general enough to fully relieve the situation. Private reports that it was raining this morning at several points in the Southwest checked the advance and the market eased off to a shade under Saturday's closing figures during the middle of the forenoon, but offerings did not become aggressive and prices firmed up again on a renewal of bull support or covering. Talk of excessive precipitation and of unseasonable low temperatures in parts of the Eastern belt tended to restrict offerings particularly as it was said buying orders from Liverpool suggested that the English trade might not be ready to follow a further decline, and during the early afternoon active months sold about 5@7 points higher. At this level, however, offerings again became heavier, and last prices were some 6 or 8 points off from the best. Liverpool, which has been closed since last Friday, will reopen for business tomorrow morning. Business here was comparatively quiet, following the heavy trading of last week, and while much of the talk around the ring reflected bearish sentiment, sellers were said to be held in check by the absence of Southern offerings and uncertainty as to the exact status of the crop situation in the Southwest.

Indian Killed on Track.

Near Rochelle, Ill., an Indian went to sleep on a railroad track and was killed by the fast express. He paid for his carelessness with his life. Often it's that way when people neglect coughs and colds. Don't risk your life when prompt use of Dr. King's New Discovery will cure them and so prevent a dangerous throat or lung trouble. "It completely cured me, in a short time of a terrible cough that followed a severe attack of grip," writes J. R. Watts, Floydada, Tex., "and I regained 15 pounds in weight that I had lost." STOCK PRICES MADE GAINS

Trading Was Below Volume of Recent Days, But Good Crop Prospects Helped—Coal Carriers Made Gains.

New York, Aug. 5.—Although the local stock market lacked foreign initiative, by reason of the holiday in London, upward progress in prices continued today. Trading was considerably below the volume of recent busy days, but was well distributed, the potent force being again found in good crop prospects.

All the coal-carrying stocks added to last week's higher quotation, while Canadian Pacific entered upon a new record, with no little strength in its allies—Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste Marie, and Wisconsin Central. The one notable exception to the general tendency was St. Paul, which yielded part of the rise, following the declaration of the regular dividend.

Reading was once more a prominent feature, dividing activity with United States Steel. The latter was fairly strong at the outset, but fell back later under pressure, which followed the news that a bill has been introduced in Congress aimed at the Steel Corporation.

In addition to the standard stocks, numerous specialties added their share to the day's movement, including the Tobacco, Can, common and preferred, Harvester, People's Gas and Lackawanna Steel, which gained over five points.

There was a better inquiry for bonds, especially the convertible issues.

Total sales, par value, amounted to $1,504,000. United States government bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales, 333,200 shares.

ACKNOWLEDGE IT

Wilmington Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Wilmington given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the kidneys in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases. Read this:

R. A. Biddle, 606 Castle St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I suffered from my kidneys and back for a long time and another member of my family also complained of backache. Finally we got Doan's Kidney Pills at Bellamy's Drug Store and the results of their use were astonishing. The secretions from my kidneys were cleared and the pain and backache disappeared. We consider Doan's Kidney Pills a most effective kidney medicine and will always be pleased to endorse them." (Statement given in April, 1903.)

Time is the Test.

Mr. Biddle was interviewed on December 27, 1910, and he said: "I have no reason whatever to alter my high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills. They made a permanent cure in my case and for that reason I am always glad to say a good word for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Register of Deeds of Haywood Shoots Himself—Surrendered

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., August 5.—Embittered it is believed by reflecting upon ingratitude of those who he felt should have been his friends, James Nolan, register of deeds for Haywood county, shot and killed himself in his bedchamber early yesterday morning. It is thought he did not get the support he expected in the primary Saturday.

After eluding authorities for more than 12 years, Joe Angel, of Lillelvy, Madison county, who shot and killed Latta Banks, a young man of the same section, went to Marshall a few days ago and surrendered to officers telling them that he desired to stand trial. He was placed in Madison county jail and will probably be tried at the next term of court.

Complete moving picture and phonographic outfits are included in the equipment of a German scientific expedition to the mountains in the north of the Malay Peninsula, inhabited by wild tribesmen.

from Pennsylvania singing "We'll hang Boise Penrose to a sour apple tree as we go marching on."

The Pennsylvanians got a demonstrative welcome.

The galleries of the hall were all but empty as the hour set for the convention approached and spectators were coming in slowly.

The scene in the hall, except for the lack of a jam in the galleries, was almost identical with that of the Republican convention. Many of the standards had been raised on the identical spots where they stood during the tumultuous convention which re-nominated President Taft. New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania had front row places.

California, a pioneer State in the Roosevelt movement, was promoted to a prominent front position at the right of the stage.

The hall was gaily decorated with flags and bunting. Large canvas portraits were a feature of the decorations.

Back of the stage were those of Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln. At the left of the stage was a portrait of Hamilton and at the right one of Andrew Jackson.

Suspended from the band gallery at the far end of the hall, where all could see it was an oil painting of Col. Roosevelt. The artist did not at all flatter the Progressive leader.

Over the main entrance was a stuffed head of a splendid specimen of a bull moose.

The Delaware delegation was cheered when it arrived at the hall, the chairman carrying a banner with the inscription: "Delaware Progressives—Watch us grow."

California's delegation, carrying the same banners they used at the Republican convention and each member with a red bandana about his neck, was greeted with prolonged cheers.

The band, perched in its loft up among the ceiling girders, regaled the assemblage with popular and patriotic airs, vieing at times with a grand army fife and drum corps stationed on the stage.

The New Jersey delegation came in shouting the same yell they used so often at the Republican convention:

"Rah, rah, ree, who are we?
We are the delegates from New Jersee.
Are we in it? Just you wait
Till we give Teddy 28 straight."

The New Jersey delegates brought a new battle hymn with them which, like the Pennsylvania ditty on the subject of hanging Boies Penrose to a sour apple tree, was set to the tune of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic. This is the way it ran:

"The 'grand old party' is a-mouldering in the grave,
It came and saved the nation, but itself it cannot save,
It's Barnes' plaything and it's Guggenheim's slave
But we go marching on

"The bull moose is coming, can't you hear his warlike tread?
The elephant and donkey are a-trembling with dread,
Their game is up we've got 'em licked, they know that they are dead
As we go marching on."

At 12:20 P. M., Senator Dixon, of Montana, National chairman of the new party, who was to call the convention to order, arrived at the hall and was cheered as he went upon the stage.

Former Senator Albert J. Beveridge, temporary chairman, was seated at this time in the Indiana delegation, awaiting the ratification of his selection as chairman, when the convention should get under way.

The delegate section now was crowded and the aisles were choked.

The galleries, too, were beginning to fill rapidly. Tickets had been sold to spectators to help defray the expense of launching the new party.

At 12:30 the gallery space was about half filled.

The only delegate in sight from the stage occupied a seat with the Pennsylvania delegation.

Women were seen in the delegations of a score or more States.

At 12:40 the sergeant-at-arms was directed to clear the aisles, and the convention prepared to get underway. At 12:45 Senator Dixon rapped for order.

"Ladies and gentlemen,' ' he said, "the convention will now come to order. In the past four weeks," Senator Dixon declared, "a Nation has seen a new alignment of American politics.

"Within four weeks, responding to our call, are assembled here today more delegate representations to a National convention than ever before assembled on American soil.

"This afternoon a new mile stone will be erected in American politics. A new political party, knowing no North and no South, founded on the live issues of today, will take its place with those parties which live on the dead issues of the past."

Senator Dixon was interrupted by a cry from a delegate: "Hoorah for Teddy."

The delegates jumped to their seats and cheered for half a minute.

Senator Dixon then called on Secretary O. K. Davis to read the Progressive call for the convention. The reading was frequently interrupted by applause.

The slogan "Thou shalt not steal," appearing in the call, was greeted with cheers.

When the reading of the call ended, Senator Dixon called on Rev. T. F. Dornblazer, who pronounced the prayer. The Rev. Dornblazer's prayer was interrupted by cries of "amen, amen."

He reviewed the various crises in the history of the country and begged the blessing of God "in this great crisis in our National life."

When the minister had been praying for more than 15 minutes, the delegates interrupted with applause and shouts of "amen."

In conclusion he led the entire assemblage in the Lord's Prayer, delegates and galleries joining in the familiar words.

The band struck up "America," and still standing, the assemblage sang the anthem.

At the conclusion of the song Senator Dixon quieted the crowd while a flash light picture was taken. The band, under order from Senator Dixon, struck up "Dixie" and the crowd cheered.

A round of cheers greeted Senator Dixon's announcement that former Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, had been selected as temporary chairman of the convention by the National Committee. Senator Dixon introduced him in a flattering eulogy and he began the keynote speech.

At one point in his speech Mr. Beveridge referred to professional politicians.

"To hell with the politicians," came a shout from the gallery and the delegates cheered.

Senator Beveridge's speech kept the floor and galleries cheering. Delegates and spectators rose to their feet with a wild outburst when he denounced the Standard Oil and Tobacco decisions of the Supreme Court.

A chorus of jeers and groans greeted Beveridge's attack on President Taft and the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill.

Throughout Senator Beveridge s speech a persistent spectator in the gallery interrupted several times with the shout "How about the liquor question?"

Beveridge ignored him and there were shouts of "put him out."

Senator Beveridge concluded at 3:07 amid an outburst of prolonged applause.

The temporary officers were announced and their temporary rules were adopted.

The rules of the House of Representatives, amended in many particulars, were presented as the rules of the convention. They were adopted without debate.

A new rule barring contested delegates from voting on any question before the convention was included in the amendments and was greeted with cheers.

The roll of States was then called for the naming of the members of the various committees.

The roll had proceeded as far as California, when a motion was carried to dispense with a further reading, the State delegations sending their lists to the desk.

Former Secretary of the Interior James R. Garfield, of Ohio, was recognized and from his place on the floor moved the appointment of a committee to invite Col. Roosevelt to appear before the convention at noon tomorrow to deliver an address and also to escort him to the Coliseum.

The motion was enthusiastically seconded. Chairman Beveridge declared that the ayes "seemed" to have it and it was so ordered.

The proposed "experience meeting" with brief speeches from representatives of the various States, proposed for the late afternoon, was postponed and at 3:37 P. M. adjournment was taken until noon tomorrow.

HOMICIDE IN WAYNE

Drinking Hard Cider—Ends In Homicide—Murderer Arrested

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., August 5.—Benjaman F. Coley, a young white man of the Eureka neighborhood, about 16 miles north of Goldsboro, was shot in a row at that place Sunday morning about 11 o'clock and died at an early hour this morning.

Coroner C. E. Stanley and Sheriff Edwards were notified at once of Coley's death and hurried to the home of Coley where he had been carried. The jury which the coroner empanelled placed the killing on Ernest Cook, who fired the shot, and his brother, Arthur Cook, as an accessory. Ernest Cook was arrested after a long chase by the officers in their automobile just as he was attempting to board a train at Boston on the Norfolk Southern, and is now in the Wayne county jail. Josiah Roe, a friend of Cook's, who drove him through the country to the station, was arrested for aiding him to escape and is held in default of $1,000 bond. The officers are on the hunt for Arthur Cook and expect to arrest him tonight.

The drinking of hard cider is said to have been the cause of the Sunday morning row. A number of young men had been drinking cider and were engaged in a wrestling contest when Arthur Cook, became angry with Alvin Coley, a brother of the dead man, and drew a pistol, snapping it several times at Coley. He was disarmed by bystanders and went at once for his horse and rode to get his brother, Ernest Cook, who returned with him in about half hour, followed up the Coleys and started the fuss over again, shooting B. F. Coley and firing several times at a man named Pittman, who was with the dead man. All the men accused of his murder stand well in their community and are looked upon as young men of excellent character.

PLATFORM COMMITTEE

Progressive State Delegations Name Members—One North Carolinian

Chicago, August 5.—The Committee on Resolutions which will submit the platform to the National Progressive convention was named today by the various State delegations.

William S. Pearson, of North Carolina, was named as a member of the committee.

Miss Alice G. Carpenter, of Boston, named by the Massachusetts delegation as a member of the Committee on Platform, is said to be the first woman to fill such a place at a National political convention. Miss Carpenter has been active as a sociological worker and also as a writer.

The new National Committee, which takes the place of the Provisional Committee, was named. The committee includes among others, J. N. Williamson, North Carolina, and Thomas Lee Moore, Virginia.

Besides naming National committeemen and members of the Resolutions Committee the business dispatched by State delegations today included the following:

Virginia name R. B. Murphy, chairman; Walter Graham on credentials; Colonel B. S. Browning on permanent organization, and W. H. Moorman on rules.

"HARVESTER TRUST" FILES ITS ANSWER

none of the old companies would have sustained.

The wages and conditions of its employes, the answer says, have been improved by the Harvester Company to an extent impossible under trade conditions existing prior to 1902, wages having been increased fully 27 per cent.

It is further declared that the company has given wide publicity to its business and that since 1907 the company has filed with the Bureau of Corporations its annual reports covering all its business operations and that it welcomes the utmost publicity and public supervision and is ready and is desirous of remedying any defects or mismanagement in its business.

The answer avers that considering the capital invested and the hazards of the business, the company's earnings have been reasonable and much smaller than the average profits of manufacturing companies; that the public and employes are receiving the benefits of the large economies and increased efficiency resulting from the organization and that it was organized without excessive capitalization and without any purpose of creating a monopoly or securing quick fortunes from stock sales or excessive earnings. It is pointed out that since its formation the company's business methods have secured fair treatment to competitors and has tended to foster competition and not to destroy it. The answer insists that the United States government having had for 10 years full knowledge of the company's organization and methods and their beneficial effect upon the trade and public, ought not, after thousands of employes and others have made large investments in its stock, be permitted in a court of equity to urge that the corporation is illegal and should be destroyed.

DISASTROUS CYCLONE

Cotton Mill Demolished—2,000 Acres Of Cotton Destroyed In S. C.

Rock Hill, S. C., August 5.—Rock Hill parties who visited Clover Sunday, report that one of the most disastrous cyclones in the history of York county visited that section of King's Mountain township Saturday afternoon. Fierce winds, accompanied by considerable hail and rain, devasted crops in an area five miles wide and 10 to 12 miles long. All fruitage was beaten from trees and cotton and corn fields were riddled by the hail, which in some places banked a foot deep.

The damage to crops will reach into thousands, though it is impossible to give anything like a correct estimate. About 2,000 acres of cotton were destroyed.

At Clover the Clover cotton mill was demolished. The weight of the hailstones and the fierce gale caused the building to collapse. Eighteen houses were blown over, several families having narrow escapes. A family of 12 in one building was saved by the bedstead catching the roof and holding it off the inmates while they scrambled out through the opening.

One woman died of fright after the storm. Several were slightly injured. The loss to mill property is more than $75,000. The mill will be rebuilt at once. The roof of a hardware store and a residence were also hurled to the ground, causing a loss of several hundred dollars.

SEIZE DIAMONDS.

Detectives Raid Offices of Judge Gober of Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 5.—In a raid on the law offices of Judge George F. Gober today, city and private detectives seized diamonds and other jewelry valued at $1,000 alleged to be part of the loot taken in the "Diamond Trunk Robbery" last April when more than $30,000 in gems was stolen from a salesman's trunk in transit from a hotel to the railway station. The robbery was alleged to have been committed by George Wren and two others, all of whom have been arrested.

Judge Gober, a former Supeior Court judge and prominent in State legal circles, declares he was retained in the case by the Jewelers' Protective Association and by Wrenn and that the diamonds were withheld from the booty recovered from the robbers, as a retainer for a fee due from that organization.

Chief of Detectives Lanford, who participated in the raid, said tonight it was the result of Judge Gober's failure to abide by a signed contract to turn over the recovered booty. He said the contract called for the recovery of gems worth $15,000, for which Mr. Gober was to receive a $300 fee, but that he turned in only $2,400 worth of jewels.

FIGHT FOR BATTLESHIPS.

Democratic Caucus Will be Held Today—No Steam Roller Tactics.

Washington, Aug. 5.—With the House Democratic caucus on the battleship question only 24 hours ahead, those Democrats pledged to the provisions for the two battleships appropriation met today and determined to carry the fight vigorously in the "no battleship" camp. Accordingly, a committee early tomorrow will serve notice on Speaker Clark, Majority Leader Underwood and Representatvie Burleson, of Texas, chairman of the caucus, that the methods that marked the previous caucus will not be tolerated, and that two hours debate must be allowed.

The advocates of the two battleships in the present bill will concentrate their efforts toward having the "no battleship" pledge lifted, and all Democrats released to vote their convictions. Representative Sulzer, of New York, leader of the contingent, declared tonight that if such reversal of the previous caucus action was attained, there would be no question about the inclusion of two big fighting craft in the measure.

SHOOTING AT VANCEBORO.

B. R. Warren Seriously Wounded by Postmaster J. F. Edwards.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., Aug. 5.—A message received tonight from Vanceboro states that the condition of Mr. B. R. Warren, who was shot and seriously wounded by Postmaster J. F. Edwards, at that place, Saturday night, was slightly improved. Mr. Edwards is now confined in jail here awaiting the results of the injuries to his victim. Owing to the prominence of the principals in the affair, it has caused a sensation all over this section.

WANTS NAME WITHDRAWN.

Beveridge Will be Named Permanent Chairman—Lindsay Unwell.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—At a late conference with Col. Roosevelt today Judge Ben Lindsey, of Denver, asked to have his name withdrawn from consideration as permanent chairman of the Progressive convention. Col. Roosevelt agreed, and it was said the plan now was to continue former Senator Beveridge as permanent chairman.

IN MEMORIAM.

It is with our sad regrets and profound sorrow that members of Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association, No. 71, learned of the sad death of their beloved brother, B. B. Adkins, of Southport, N. C., who was burned in a gasoline explosion aboard the Pilot Boat Francis.

In commemoration of the deceased, who was stricken down in the flower of his manhood, calls forth the heartfelt sympathy and condolence of the members of No. 71, therefore, be it

Resolved, That our intimate association has served only to strengthen our appreciation of his sterling character.

Resolved, That while we deplore the loss of our brother, and bow with submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, we rejoice in paying tribute to his memory; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in our brother's death we extend to his family, which consists of father, mother and brother and sister, our heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, That as a mark of our respect our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days; that these resolutions be spread on the minutes, a copy be sent to our official journal for publication and one presented to his family.
